

Stewardship Sunday
Pentecost 23 / Proper 25
Sunday, October 27, 2024 ❖ 9:30 am

“You’re doing a good job as an usher,
but its called an offering, not a sin tax.”

A very warm welcome! We are delighted to have you join us. This bulletin has been designed to help you worship with us. Please note that wherever it says “stand, sit, kneel” (Episcopalian Calisthenics!), such are only suggestions. We Stand to Praise; Sit to Listen; and Kneel to Ask. You are welcome to do whatever you are able or find most comfortable.

We hope you will not find our silence before the liturgy to be a lack of hospitality. We merely have a custom of keeping the silence before the liturgy as a time of preparation and talking to God. We will be very enthusiastic to talk with you and each other after the service. There’s an old adage which says, “Before liturgy, talk to God. During liturgy, let God talk to you. After liturgy, talk to each other.”

Please remember St Michael’s in your prayers and we hope you will return to worship with us again!

Flowers for the Altar

Each Sunday, members of the congregation may sponsor altar flowers, chapel flowers, and the Aumbry

Candle in thanksgiving for all the blessings of this life or in memory of loved ones. Call the church office at (949) 644-0463 or make your dedication via our website at <https://bit.ly/SMAAFLOWERS>.

You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, and with all your soul, and like unto it: You shall love your neighbor as yourself. On these two commandments hang all the Law and the Prophets.

THE PSALM: Psalm 34:1-8

Meinrad mode 5

© Saint Meinrad Archabbey

I will bless the LORD at all times;
 his praise shall ever be in my mouth.
 I will glory in the LORD;
 let the humble hear and rejoice.
 Proclaim with me the greatness of the LORD;
 let us exalt his Name together.

I sought the LORD, and he answered me
 and delivered me out of all my terror.
 Look upon him and be radiant,
 and let not your faces be ashamed.
 I called in my affliction, and the LORD heard me
 and saved me from all my troubles.

The angel of the LORD encompasses those who love him,
 and he will deliver them.
 Taste and see that the LORD is good;
 happy are they who trust in him!
 Come children and listen to me;
 I will teach you the love of the Lord.

THE SECOND READING: Hebrews 7:23-28 (Please be seated.)

Kristy Kiper

Reader A Reading from the letter to the Hebrews.

²³The former priests were many in number, because they were prevented by death from continuing in office; ²⁴but he holds his priesthood permanently, because he continues forever.

²⁵Consequently he is able for all time to save those who approach God through him, since he always lives to make intercession for them.

²⁶For it was fitting that we should have such a high priest, holy, blameless, undefiled, separated from sinners, and exalted above the heavens. ²⁷Unlike the other high priests, he has no need to offer sacrifices day after day, first for his own sins, and then for those of the people; this he did once for all when he offered himself. ²⁸For the law appoints as high priests those who are subject to weakness, but the word of the oath, which came later than the law, appoints a Son who has been made perfect forever.

THE GOSPEL: Mark 10:46-52

Priest ✦ The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Mark.

People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

⁴⁶Jesus and his disciples came to Jericho. As he and his disciples and a large crowd were leaving Jericho, Bartimaeus son of Timaeus, a blind beggar, was sitting by the roadside.⁴⁷When he heard that it was Jesus of Nazareth, he began to shout out and say, "Jesus, Son of David, have mercy on me!" ⁴⁸Many sternly ordered him to be quiet, but he cried out even more loudly, "Son of David, have mercy on me!" ⁴⁹Jesus stood still and said, "Call him here." And they called the blind man, saying to him, "Take heart; get up, he is calling you." ⁵⁰So throwing off his cloak, he sprang up and came to Jesus. ⁵¹Then Jesus said to him, "What do you want me to do for you?" The blind man said to him, "My teacher, let me see again." ⁵²Jesus said to him, "Go; your faith has made you well." Immediately he regained his sight and followed him on the way.

Priest The Gospel of the Lord.

People Praise to you, Lord Christ.

THE CREED (Please stand as able.)

Celebrant We believe in one God,

All the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father, God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, of one Being with the Father. Through him all things were made. For us and for our salvation he came down from heaven: by the power of the Holy Spirit he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary, and was made man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate; he suffered death and was buried. On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures; he ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son. With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified. He has spoken through the Prophets. We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church. We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins. We look for the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world to come. Amen.

THE CONFESSION & ABSOLUTION

Celebrant God is love and we are God's children. There is no room for fear in love. We love because God loved us first. Let us reverently confess our sins to Almighty God:
Most merciful God,

All we confess that we have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed, by what we have done, and by what we have left undone. We have not loved you with our whole heart; we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves. We are truly sorry and we humbly repent. For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ, have mercy on us and forgive us; that we may delight in your will, and walk in your ways, to the glory of your Name. Amen.

Celebrant Almighty God have mercy ✚ on you, forgive you all your sins through our Lord Jesus Christ, strengthen you in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep you in eternal life. Amen.

THE PRESENTATION VERSE

Glory Be to the Father (Gloria Patri)

Henry Wellington Greatorex

The musical score is written for voice and piano in 4/4 time with a key signature of two flats (B-flat and E-flat). It consists of four systems of music. Each system has a vocal line on a treble clef staff and a piano accompaniment on a bass clef staff. The lyrics are: 'Glo-ry be to the Fa-ther, and to the Son, and to the Ho-ly Ghost; As it was in the be-gin-ning, is now, and ev-er shall be, World with-out end. A - men, A - men.'

Public Domain

Holy and gracious Father: In your infinite love you made us for yourself; and, when we had fallen into sin and become subject to evil and death, you, in your mercy, sent Jesus Christ, your only and eternal Son, to share our human nature, to live and die as one of us, to reconcile us to you, the God and Father of all.

He stretched out his arms upon the cross, and offered himself in obedience to your will, a perfect sacrifice for the whole world.

On the night he was handed over to suffering and death, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

After supper he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

Therefore we proclaim the mystery of faith:

All Christ has died; Christ is risen; Christ will come again.

We celebrate the memorial of our redemption, O Father, in this sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving. Recalling his death, resurrection, and ascension, we offer you these gifts.

Sanctify them by your Holy Spirit to be for your people the Body and Blood of your Son, the holy food and drink of new and unending life in him. Sanctify us also that we may faithfully receive this holy Sacrament, and serve you in unity, constancy, and peace; and at the last day bring us with all your saints into the joy of your eternal kingdom.

All this we ask through your Son Jesus Christ. By him, and with him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty Father, now and for ever. AMEN.

THE LORD'S PRAYER

Celebrant And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,
Our Father,

All who art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever and ever. Amen.

THE FRACTION

Celebrant We break this bread to share in the Body of Christ.

People Though we are many, we are One Body, because we all share in one bread.

Lamb of God, you take a - way the sins of the world: grant us peace.

Everyone is welcome to receive Christ's Body and Blood in our Church. If you do not wish to receive either the bread or the wine, please cross your arms and a short blessing will be said. You are also welcome to intinct the bread into the chalice if you prefer not to drink directly from the chalice. (Though, to be honest, it is fortified with extra alcohol to kill germs. If you don't drink it the priest must, and then the announcements can get a bit entertaining after Mass.) Gluten-free wafers are also available upon request.

Congregants worshipping on Zoom, Facebook Live, or YouTube may say the following:

THE SPIRITUAL COMMUNION PRAYER

Jesus, I believe that you are truly present in the Blessed Sacrament of the Altar. I love you above all things, and long for you in my soul. Since I cannot receive you in the Sacrament of your Body and Blood, come spiritually into my heart. Cleanse and strengthen me with your grace, Lord Jesus, and let me never be separated from you. May I live in you, and you in me, in this life and in the life to come. Amen.

THE POST-COMMUNION PRAYER (Please kneel or sit as able.)

Celebrant Let us pray.

Eternal God,

All heavenly Father, you have graciously accepted us as living members of your Son our Savior Jesus Christ, and you have fed us with spiritual food in the Sacrament of his Body and Blood. Send us now into the world in peace, and grant us strength and courage to love and serve you with gladness and singleness of heart; through Christ our Lord. Amen.

ANNOUNCEMENTS (Please be seated.)

THE BENEDICTION (Please stand as able.)

The peace of God, which passes all understanding, keep your hearts and minds in the knowledge and love of God, and of his Son Jesus Christ our Lord; and the blessing of God Almighty, + the Father, the Son, and the Holy Ghost, be among you, and remain with you always. Amen.

TODAY: Stewardship and Giving Sunday

Stewardship season has arrived! God's grace has guided us through an uncertain year thanks to a parish of generous, thoughtful doers. You willingly and quietly gave of your time and money to maintain the beauty of our services, the splendor of our music, the refurbishment of our organ, the conviviality of our fellowship, and the care of our neighbors.

Certainly, this past year has presented challenges to our world at St. Michael and All Angels. However, thanks to an industrious Finance Committee and Vestry, we now have two schools using our campus and contributing to our finances: The Gordon School and The OC Academy. These funds help offset our deficit, as we move into the new calendar year.

In October, you will be receiving your third quarter statement which includes year to date income and expenses for St. Michael's. Vestry, at the direction of Fr. Shane, implemented a zero-based budget for whole parish. Most met that goal through pledges, in-kind donations, and frugal spending. That effort coupled with tenant rents from the two schools, as well as Verizon, and Roger's Gardens currently gives us a projected year-end deficit of $44,313.00 - well below the projected deficit of $102,813.00. This lower deficit, although still not ideal, reflects the Parish Center Donations, increased plate donations, and pledges. The leadership of Fr. Shane, The Finance Committee and The Vestry has been very mindful of their roles as stewards of the resources you have generously entrusted to us.

Giving Sunday is TODAY, October 27, 2024. At that time, pledge cards will be collected at the Sunday liturgy or by mail or online. We ask you to prayerfully reflect on the gifts of this parish to you and your commitment to meet the financial cost of these gifts. We thank you for your generosity this year and hope that the same level of giving will prompt you to maintain or increase your pledge as able.

Most sincerely,
Stewardship Committee

Little Red Wagon update

During the month of October, we are collecting supplies for Priceless Pets in Costa Mesa, while also continuing our collection of safety items for MOMS OC. Priceless Pets is a no-kill pet rescue organization. Their motto: "One by one until there are none." We will focus our efforts on the items for which they have the greatest need:

- Iams Dry Kitten Food
- Fancy Feast Canned Kitten Food
- Costco Dry Puppy Food
- Laundry Detergent
- Liquid Bleach for Laundry

They also ask for donations of Iams Dry Cat Food, Royal Canin Mother/Baby Cat Wet Food, Dog Poop Bags, Paper Towels, Toilet Paper, Liquid Hand Soap, and Dawn Dish Soap.

Looking to adopt a new pet? Visit Priceless Pets at 1536 Newport Blvd. in Costa Mesa, Tue-Fri 12-6 PM, Sat-Sun 12-5 PM.

A note about pledging via credit card

If you pay your pledge via credit card, please consider including the processing fee in your payment. There is a drop down menu on the website to accommodate this inclusion. Currently, St. Michael's expects to pay $1,600 by year's end for such fees.

Give via Qualified Charitable Distribution

Did you know that you can “avoid” paying taxes on all or a portion of your annual required minimum distribution (RMD) with a qualified charitable distribution (QCD)?

If you are 72 or older, and required to take an annual distribution from your IRA, 401(k), 403(b) etc. you can make a gift to St. Michael's (or any other qualified charity) to satisfy that obligation, and not pay income tax on the transfer, up to $105,000 (adjusted annually). The distribution must come directly from your IRA to St. Michael's (to take advantage of this exception for a 401(k), the funds would need to be rolled over to an IRA first). The QCD can satisfy your required minimum distribution for the year up to $105,000. The funds must come out of your account by the December 31st RMD deadline.

This is a great option for anyone who does not itemize charitable deductions and/or anyone who does not want to incur that additional RMD income. Since the gift doesn't count as income, it can actually reduce your annual income level, which in turn may help lower your Medicare premiums and decrease the amount of Social Security that is subject to tax.

This exception is available to all individuals 70-1/2 or over, so you may be able to shelter up to $105,000 in distributions from your IRA even if you are not yet subject to RMD requirements.

This available “loophole” is subject to specific technical requirements, so be sure to consult with your financial, tax and/or legal advisors before taking any action to ensure you're making the right decision for you and reporting the distribution correctly.
