BLESSED LORD, we thank you for angels and archangels and for all the company of heaven, who bear tidings of your love and your desire for peace in the world. As we light these candles, prepare us to join in the angels' song and to live lives committed to love and peace.

This response is said by all

MAKE STRONG OUR VOICES and make quiet our hearts, as we draw ever nearer to the season of the fulfillment of your promise to our ancestors, to Abraham and his descendants, in the birth of Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Trisagion, said by all

Holy God,
Holy and Mighty,
Holy Immortal One,
Have mercy upon us.

Holy God,
Holy and Mighty,
Holy Immortal One,
Have mercy upon us.

Holy God,
Holy and Mighty,
Holy Immortal One,
Have mercy upon us.

The Salutation and Collect of the Day

Celebrant The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Celebrant Let us pray.

MERCIFUL GOD, who sent your messengers the prophets to preach repentance and prepare the way for our salvation: Give us grace to heed their warnings and forsake our sins, that we may greet with joy the coming of Jesus Christ our Redeemer; who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

All are seated for the Readings.

The First Reading

Baruch 5:1-9

Lector A reading from the book of Baruch.

TAKE OFF the garment of your sorrow and affliction, O Jerusalem, and put on forever the beauty of the glory from God.

Put on the robe of the righteousness that comes from God;
put on your head the diadem of the glory of the Everlasting;
for God will show your splendor everywhere under heaven.

For God will give you evermore the name,
"Righteous Peace, Godly Glory."

Arise, O Jerusalem, stand upon the height;
look toward the east,
and see your children gathered from west and east
at the word of the Holy One, rejoicing that God has remembered them.

For they went out from you on foot, led away by their enemies;
but God will bring them back to you,
carried in glory, as on a royal throne.

For God has ordered that every high mountain and the everlasting hills be made low and the valleys filled up, to make level ground, so that Israel may walk safely in the glory of God.

The woods and every fragrant tree have shaded Israel at God's command.

For God will lead Israel with joy,
in the light of his glory,
with the mercy and righteousness that come from him.

Lector                    Hear what the Spirit is saying to God's people.
People                    Thanks be to God.

The Second Reading

Philippians 1:3-11

Lector A reading from Paul's letter to the Philippians.

I THANK MY GOD every time I remember you, constantly praying with joy in every one of my prayers for all of you, because of your sharing in the gospel from the first day until now. I am confident of this, that the one who began a good work among you will bring it to completion by the day of Jesus Christ. It is right for me to think this way about all of you, because you hold me in your heart, for all of you share in God's grace with me, both in my imprisonment and in the defense and confirmation of the gospel. For God is my witness, how I long for all of you with the compassion of Christ Jesus. And this is my prayer, that your love may overflow more and more with knowledge and full insight to help you to determine what is best, so that in the day of Christ you may be pure and blameless, having produced the harvest of righteousness that comes through Jesus Christ for the glory and praise of God.

Lector Hear what the Spirit is saying to God's people.

People Thanks be to God.

All then stand to sing this Hymn.

The Holy Gospel

Luke 3:1-6

✠ Assisting Priest The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Luke.
 ✠ People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

IN THE FIFTEENTH YEAR of the reign of Emperor Tiberius, when Pontius Pilate was governor of Judea, and Herod was ruler of Galilee, and his brother Philip ruler of the region of Ituraea and Trachonitis, and Lysanias ruler of Abilene, during the high priesthood of Annas and Caiaphas, the word of God came to John son of Zechariah in the wilderness. He went into all the region around the Jordan, proclaiming a baptism of repentance for the forgiveness of sins, as it is written in the book of the words of the prophet Isaiah,

“The voice of one crying out in the wilderness:
 ‘Prepare the way of the Lord,
 make his paths straight.
 Every valley shall be filled,
 and every mountain and hill shall be made low,
 and the crooked shall be made straight,
 and the rough ways made smooth;
 and all flesh shall see the salvation of God.’

Assisting Priest The Gospel of the Lord.
People Praise to you, Lord Christ.

Sermon

The Rev. Dr. Barbara Stewart

*A period of meditative silence follows the Sermon.
 All then stand. The Nicene Creed, the ancient summary of the Christian faith, is recited by all in unison.*

The Nicene Creed

We believe in one God,
the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth,
of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ,
the only Son of God,
eternally begotten of the Father,
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made,
of one Being with the Father.
Through him all things were made.
For us and for our salvation
he came down from heaven:
by the power of the Holy Spirit
he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary,
and was made man.
For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;
he suffered death and was buried.
On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures;
he ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son.
With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified.
He has spoken through the Prophets.
We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.
We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.
We look for the † resurrection of the dead,
and the life of the world to come. Amen.

The Great Thanksgiving

Celebrant The Lord be with you.
People And also with you.
Celebrant Lift up your hearts.
People We lift them to the Lord.
Celebrant Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
People It is right to give God thanks and praise.

IT IS RIGHT, AND A GOOD AND JOYFUL THING, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth, through Jesus Christ our Lord; Because you sent your beloved Son to redeem us from sin and death, and to make us heirs in him of everlasting life; that when he shall come again in power and great triumph to judge the world, we may without shame or fear rejoice to behold his appearing. Therefore we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who for ever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:

Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly Lord, God of pow - er and might, hea - ven and earth are full of your glo - ry. Ho - san - na in the high - est. Bless - ed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Ho - san - na in the high - est._____

WE GIVE THANKS TO YOU, O God, for the goodness and love which you have made known to us in creation; in the calling of Israel to be your people; in your Word spoken through the prophets; and above all in the Word made flesh, Jesus, your Son. For in these last days you sent him to be incarnate from the Virgin Mary, to be the Savior and Redeemer of the world. In him, you have delivered us from evil, and made us worthy to stand before you. In him, you have brought us out of error into truth, out of sin into righteousness, out of death into life.

On the night before he died for us, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

After supper he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

Therefore, according to his command, O Father,

Celebrant and People

We remember his death,
 we proclaim his resurrection,
 we await his coming in glory;

And we offer our sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving to you, O Lord of all; presenting to you, from your creation, this bread and this wine.

We pray you, gracious God, to send your Holy Spirit upon these gifts that they may be the Sacrament of the Body of Christ and his Blood of the new Covenant. Unite us to your Son in his sacrifice, that we may be acceptable through him, being sanctified by the Holy Spirit. In the fullness of time, put all things in subjection under your Christ, and bring us to that heavenly country where, with Saint Michael and all your saints, we may enter the everlasting heritage of your sons and daughters; through Jesus Christ our Lord, the firstborn of all creation, the head of the Church, and the author of our salvation. By him, and with him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty Father, now and for ever.

People AMEN.

Celebrant And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,

All then pray together

OUR FATHER, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever and ever. Amen.

The Celebrant breaks the consecrated Host.

Celebrant Alleluia. Christ our Passover is sacrificed for us.

People Therefore let us keep the feast. Alleluia.

Celebrant The Gifts of God for the People of God.

To him, to you, and to the Holy Spirit, be honor and glory, now and for ever. Amen.

People Amen.

Music Notes, by Dr. Ray Urwin

in, a new addition to our hymnal, is one of the quintessential  with a long and distinguished history of use in the Lutheran church. As only one example, Bach wrote more organ settings of this tune than almost any other one, as well as a cantata. The short but dense prelude is a setting from his Little Organ Book, meant as models for improvising and/or as teaching pieces; it and others in the collection may have been written while Bach was briefly jailed for overstaying a sabbatical! The Communion setting, from his last years in Leipzig, is highly ornamented, and is one of his greatest organ pieces. Today's anthem was written by Samuel Wesley (d. 1837), a child prodigy as both keyboard player and composer who some called "the English Mozart." He was a nephew of John Wesley the founder of Methodism, and the son of the hymn text writer Charles Wesley. With the family's former maid and second common-law wife he fathered several children, including Samuel Sebastian Wesley, who composed many hymns including "The Church's one foundation." Samuel was a major force in introducing Bach's music to the British public, and named his son Sebastian in honor of Bach. Samuel later converted to Catholicism, which did not sit well with the Methodist relatives!

Sunday School Children Rejoining Holy Eucharist

During the passing of the peace, the Sunday school children will join the congregation in the pews and are most welcome to come to the altar during the distribution of Holy Communion.

Tuesday Night @ Mike's

Join Tuesday Nights @ Mike's for the season of Advent! Barbara Stewart will guide us through Journeying the Way of Love as we await the coming of Christ by moving through the first two chapters of the Gospel of Luke. Luke's gospel provides a pattern for understanding how we can live the Way of Love as individuals, as families and friends, as a community, and out in the world.

Share Ourselves - Families in Need

Each year, St. Michael and All Angels helps provide a happy holiday to our neighbors in need. Because this has been an especially difficult year, we are working together to brighten Christmas for two families. Thank you for joining us and for your generosity!

Family 1 - Manuel and his family are really struggling right now. The house that they had been living in with their three children has been sold and they need to find a new place to live. In order to move into a new apartment they need to put down two months rent as a deposit. Manuel is so grateful for his full-time job, but they are still having trouble coming up with the money for their new apartment. Gabriela has only been able to find part time jobs which is not enough to help and also keep up with their monthly payments of utilities and food. The family is very thankful for any help they can get during this difficult time. Mom and Dad would love to be able to buy Christopher, James and Bryan each a new toy for Christmas.

Family 2 - Adrian and Loreno are doing the best they can to provide for their family of five. Adrian is the sole provider and they face a continuous struggle to keep up with the basic costs of living. Their younger children Kaylene and Andrew are in special education and require extra attention, making it difficult for Loreno to hold down a steady job or rely on others for childcare. These are dedicated parents with very limited resources who have had to accept both food and uniform assistance when offered by the school. Donations of gift cards to help with groceries and warm clothing for the family and something more personal for Kaylene, Andrew and Jahir would make for a very special Christmas. Whatever you are able to provide will be so meaningful to this family who has so little. Please know your donations will go a long way to bring relief, cheer and encouragement. We know that these times are hard for everyone and appreciate your generosity.
