

The Second Sunday after the Epiphany

Sunday, January 18, 2026 ❖ 9:30 am

A very warm welcome! We are delighted to have you join us. This bulletin has been designed to help you worship with us. Please note that wherever it says “stand, sit, kneel” (Episcopalian Calisthenics!), such are only suggestions. We Stand to Praise; Sit to Listen; and Kneel to Ask. You are welcome to do whatever you are able or find most comfortable.

We hope you will not find our silence before the liturgy to be a lack of hospitality. We merely have a custom of keeping the silence before the liturgy as a time of preparation and talking to God. We will be very enthusiastic to talk with you and each other after the service. There’s an old adage which says, “Before liturgy, talk to God. During liturgy, let God talk to you. After liturgy, talk to each other.”

Please remember St Michael’s in your prayers and we hope you will return to worship with us again!

Flowers for the Altar

THE OPENING ACCLAMATION

Celebrant Blessed be God: + Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.
People And blessed be God's kingdom, now and for ever. Amen.

THE COLLECT FOR PURITY

Celebrant Almighty God,
All to you all hearts are open, all desires known, and from you no secrets are hid; cleanse the thoughts of our hearts, by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love you, and worthily magnify your holy Name; through Christ our Lord, the Lamb of God who takes away the sin of the world. Amen.

THE SUMMARY OF THE LAW (St. Michael's "Mission Statement")

Celebrant Hear what our Lord Jesus Christ says:
You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your mind. This is the first and great commandment. And the second is like unto it: You shall love your neighbor as yourself. On these two commandments hang all the Law and the Prophets.

THE SERMON (Please be seated.)

The Rev'd Shane Scott-Hamblen

THE FIRST READING: Isaiah 49:1-7

Michael Strong

Reader A Reading from the book of the prophet Isaiah.

- ¹Listen to me, O coastlands,
 pay attention, you peoples from far away!
 The LORD called me before I was born,
 while I was in my mother's womb he named me.
- ²He made my mouth like a sharp sword,
 in the shadow of his hand he hid me;
 he made me a polished arrow,
 in his quiver he hid me away.
- ³And he said to me, "You are my servant,
 Israel, in whom I will be glorified."
- ⁴But I said, "I have labored in vain,
 I have spent my strength for nothing and vanity;

yet surely my cause is with the LORD,
and my reward with my God.”

⁵And now the LORD says,
who formed me in the womb to be his servant,
to bring Jacob back to him,
and that Israel might be gathered to him,
for I am honored in the sight of the LORD,
and my God has become my strength—

⁶he says,
“It is too light a thing that you should be my servant
to raise up the tribes of Jacob and to restore the survivors of Israel;
I will give you as a light to the nations,
that my salvation may reach to the end of the earth.”

⁷Thus says the LORD,
the Redeemer of Israel and his Holy One,
to one deeply despised, abhorred by the nations,
the slave of rulers, “Kings shall see and stand up,
princes, and they shall prostrate themselves,
because of the LORD, who is faithful,
the Holy One of Israel, who has chosen you.”

² I waited, I waited for the LORD,
and he stooped down to me;
he heard my cry.

He drew me from the deadly pit, from the miry clay.
He set my feet upon a rock,
made my footsteps firm.

⁶ How many O LORD my God,
are the wonders and designs
that you have worked for us;
you have no equal.
Should I wish to proclaim or speak of them,
they would be more than I can tell!

⁷ You delight not in sacrifice and offerings,
but in an open ear.
You do not ask for holocaust and victim.
Then I said, "See I have come."
In the scroll of the book it stands written of me:
"I delight to do your will, O my God;

your instruction lies deep within me."
Your justice I have proclaimed in the great assembly.
My lips I have not sealed;
you know it, O LORD.
Your saving help I have not hidden in my heart;
of your faithfulness and salvation I have spoken.

I made no secret of your merciful love
and your faithfulness to the great assembly.
O LORD, you will not withhold your compassion from me.
Your merciful love
and your faithfulness will always guard me.

Reader A Reading from Paul's First letter to the Church in Corinth.

¹Paul, called to be an apostle of Christ Jesus by the will of God, and our brother Sosthenes, ²To the church of God that is in Corinth, to those who are sanctified in Christ Jesus, called to be saints, together with all those who in every place call on the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, both their Lord and ours:

³Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

⁴I give thanks to my God always for you because of the grace of God that has been given you in Christ Jesus, ⁵for in every way you have been enriched in him, in speech and knowledge of every kind—⁶just as the testimony of Christ has been strengthened among you—⁷so that you are not lacking in any spiritual gift as you wait for the revealing of our Lord Jesus Christ. ⁸He will also strengthen you to the end, so that you may be blameless on the day of our Lord Jesus Christ. ⁹God is faithful; by him you were called into the fellowship of his Son, Jesus Christ our Lord.

THE GOSPEL: John 1:29-42

Celebrant + The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to John.

People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

²⁹John saw Jesus coming toward him and declared, "Here is the Lamb of God who takes away the sin of the world!" ³⁰This is he of whom I said, 'After me comes a man who ranks ahead of me because he was before me.' ³¹I myself did not know him; but I came baptizing with water for this reason, that he might be revealed to Israel." ³²And John testified, "I saw the Spirit descending from heaven like a dove, and it remained on him." ³³I myself did not know him, but the one who sent me to baptize with water said to me, 'He on whom you see the Spirit descend and remain is the one who baptizes with the Holy Spirit.' ³⁴And I myself have seen and have testified that this is the Son of God."

³⁵The next day John again was standing with two of his disciples, ³⁶and as he watched Jesus walk by, he exclaimed, "Look, here is the Lamb of God!" ³⁷The two disciples heard him say this, and they followed Jesus. ³⁸When Jesus turned and saw them following, he said to them, "What are you looking for?" They said to him, "Rabbi" (which translated means Teacher), "where are you staying?" ³⁹He said to them, "Come and see." They came and saw where he was staying, and they remained with him that day. It was about four o'clock in the afternoon. ⁴⁰One of the two who heard John speak and followed him was Andrew, Simon Peter's brother. ⁴¹He first found his brother Simon and said to him, "We have found the Messiah" (which is translated Anointed). ⁴²He brought Simon to Jesus, who looked at him and said, "You are Simon son of John. You are to be called Cephas" (which is translated Peter).

THE CREED (Please stand as able.)

Celebrant We believe

All in one God, the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father, God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, of one Being with the Father. Through him all things were made. For us and for our salvation he came down from heaven: by the power of the Holy Spirit he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary, and was made man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate; he suffered death and was buried. On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures; he ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son. With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified. He has spoken through the Prophets. We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church. We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins. We look for the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world to come. Amen.

We give thanks to you, O God, for the goodness and love which you have made known to us in creation; in the calling of Israel to be your people; in your Word spoken through the prophets; and above all in the Word made flesh, Jesus, your Son. For in these last days you sent him to be incarnate from the Virgin Mary, to be the Savior and Redeemer of the world. In him, you have delivered us from evil, and made us worthy to stand before you. In him, you have brought us out of error into truth, out of sin into righteousness, out of death into life.

On the night before he died for us, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

After supper he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me." Therefore, according to his command, O Father,

All We remember his death,
We proclaim his resurrection,
We await his coming in glory;

And we offer our sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving to you, O Lord of all; presenting to you, from your creation, this bread and this wine.

We pray you, gracious God, to send your Holy Spirit upon these gifts that they may be the Sacrament of the Body of Christ and his Blood of the new Covenant. Unite us to your Son in his sacrifice, that we may be acceptable through him, being sanctified by the Holy Spirit. In the fullness of time, put all things in subjection under your Christ, and bring us to that heavenly country where, with St. Michael and All Angels, and all your saints, we may enter the everlasting heritage of your sons and daughters; through Jesus Christ our Lord, the firstborn of all creation, the head of the Church, and the author of our salvation.

By him, and with him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty Father, now and for ever. AMEN.

THE LORD'S PRAYER

Celebrant And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,
Our Father,

All who art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever and ever. Amen.

THE FRACTION

Celebrant We break this bread to share in the Body of Christ.

People Though we are many, we are One Body, because we all share in one bread.

THE AGNUS DEI

Hymnal S-160

Lamb of God, you take away the sins of the world

adapt. Mason Martens

Lamb of God, you take a - way the sins of the world:
have mer - cy on us. Lamb of God, you take a - way the sins of the world: have mer - cy on us. Lamb of God, you take a - way the sins of the world: grant us peace.

Everyone is welcome to receive Christ's Body and Blood in our Church. If you do not wish to receive either the bread or the wine, please cross your arms and a short blessing will be said. You are also welcome to intinct the bread into the chalice if you prefer not to drink directly from the chalice. (Though, to be honest, it is fortified with extra alcohol to kill germs. If you don't drink it the priest must, and then the announcements can get a bit entertaining after Mass.)

Gluten-free wafers are also available upon request.

Congregants worshiping on YouTube or Zoom may say the following:

THE SPIRITUAL COMMUNION PRAYER

Jesus, I believe that you are truly present in the Blessed Sacrament of the Altar. I love you above all things, and long for you in my soul. Since I cannot receive you in the Sacrament of your Body and Blood, come spiritually into my heart. Cleanse and strengthen me with your grace, Lord Jesus, and let me never be separated from you. May I live in you, and you in me, in this life and in the life to come. Amen.

THE COMMUNION MUSIC

Christ is our Cornerstone (David Thorne)

Please kneel or sit as able.

THE POST-COMMUNION PRAYER

Celebrant Let us pray.

Eternal God,

All heavenly Father, you have graciously accepted us as living members of your Son our Savior Jesus Christ, and you have fed us with spiritual food in the Sacrament of his Body and Blood; send us now into the world in peace, and grant us strength and courage to bear witness to the Light, to follow where Christ leads and to live as those who have been called by name, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

ANNOUNCEMENTS (Please be seated.)

THE BENEDICTION (Please stand as able.)

Save the Date: Organ Concert featuring Mahler's Rückert-Lieder

St. Michael's will premiere a new arrangement of Gustav Mahler's Rückert-Lieder in a concert of late Romantic music on January 18 at 4:00 pm. This newly created version for countertenor and organ, arranged by Lukas Hasler, reimagines Mahler's songs—originally for piano and orchestra—within the rich acoustics of the church.

Performers include Lukas Hasler, organist and director of music, and internationally acclaimed countertenor Alois Mühlbacher. The program also features Anton Bruckner's Ave Maria and works by Louis Vierne. Admission is free, with donations welcome.

An Evening with Historian Heather Cox Richardson

February 11, 2026, @ 4:00pm in the Davis Library

Join renowned historian Heather Cox Richardson for an evening of reflection on the state of American democracy and the lessons history offers for our shared future. Known for her widely read daily newsletter Letters from an American, Richardson brings clarity and insight to the complex forces shaping our political and civic life. In conversation with Dean Randy Hollerith, Dr. Richardson will explore how truth-telling, civic courage, and historical perspective can help us rediscover a sense of common purpose. This event is part of the National Cathedral's ongoing "A Better Way" initiative—a series of programs designed to help Americans live together and learn from each other as we strive to embody the challenges and promises of our faith.

Please Join "We Serve" and support our Hospitality Hour

"We Serve" is our rotating volunteer schedule that supports our after-service "Coffee and Donuts Hour"—a relaxed and welcoming time to connect with fellow parishioners and meet new friends. Each Sunday, at least two team members help by making coffee, providing snacks, and handling set-up and clean-up. When volunteers supply the snacks, we're able to stretch our budget to support other essential parish needs while continuing to offer a warm and generous hospitality hour. If you'd like to participate, please sign up with Gail Haghjoo (714-553-7120) or Beth Bianchi (949-636-3418). Cash donations are also gratefully accepted. Thank you for helping make St. Michael's a place of fellowship and welcome!
