

Good Shepherd Sunday
Fourth Sunday of Easter
Sunday, April 26, 2026 ❖ 9:30 am

A very warm welcome! We are delighted to have you join us. This bulletin has been designed to help you worship with us. Please note that wherever it says “stand, sit, kneel” (Episcopalian Calisthenics!), such are only suggestions. We Stand to Praise; Sit to Listen; and Kneel to Ask. You are welcome to do whatever you are able or find most comfortable.

We hope you will not find our silence before the liturgy to be a lack of hospitality. We merely have a custom of keeping the silence before the liturgy as a time of preparation and talking to God. We will be very enthusiastic to talk with you and each other after the service. There’s an old adage which says, “Before liturgy, talk to God. During liturgy, let God talk to you. After liturgy, talk to each other.”

Please remember St Michael’s in your prayers and we hope you will return to worship with us again!

Flowers for the Altar

Each Sunday, members of the congregation may sponsor altar flowers, chapel flowers, and the Aumbry Candle in thanksgiving for all the blessings of this life or in memory of loved ones.

Call the church office at (949) 644-0463 or make your dedication via our website at <https://stmikescdm.org/altar-flowers/>

THE OPENING ACCLAMATION

THE COLLECT FOR PURITY

Celebrant Almighty God,

All to you all hearts are open, all desires known, and from you no secrets are hid:
cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the searching call of your voice, that, hearing you who name us as your own, we may turn from every false shepherd, and follow where you lead into life abundant; through Jesus Christ our risen Lord. Amen.

THE SUMMARY OF THE LAW (St. Michael's "Mission Statement")

Celebrant Hear what our Lord Jesus Christ says:
You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your mind. This is the first and great commandment. And the second is like unto it: You shall love your neighbor as yourself. On these two commandments hang all the Law and the Prophets.

THE FIRST READING: Acts 2:42-47

Julie Jenkins

Reader A Reading from the Acts of the Apostles.

⁴²They devoted themselves to the apostles' teaching and fellowship, to the breaking of bread and the prayers.

⁴³Awe came upon everyone, because many wonders and signs were being done by the apostles.

⁴⁴All who believed were together and had all things in common; ⁴⁵they would sell their possessions and goods and distribute the proceeds to all, as any had need. ⁴⁶Day by day, as they spent much time together in the temple, they broke bread at home and ate their food with glad and generous hearts, ⁴⁷praising God and having the goodwill of all the people. And day by day the Lord added to their number those who were being saved.

People Thanks be to God.

THE PSALM: Psalm 23

Mode 8

© Saint Meinrad Archabbey

¹ The LORD is my shepherd;
there is nothing I shall want.

² Fresh and green are the pastures where he gives me repose.

Near restful waters he leads me;

³ he revives my soul.

He guides me along the right path,
for the sake of his name.

⁴ Though I should walk in the valley of the shadow of death, no evil would I fear,

for you are with me.

Your crook and your staff will give me comfort.

⁵ You have prepared a table before me in the sight of my foes.

My head you have anointed with oil;
my cup is overflowing.

⁶ Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life.

In the LORD's own house shall I dwell for length of days unending.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son,
and to the Holy Spirit;

As it was in the beginning, is now and ever shall be,
world without end. Amen.

THE SECOND READING: 1 Peter 2:19-25 (Please be seated.)

Louise Stover

Reader A Reading from the First letter of Peter.

¹⁹It is a credit to you if, being aware of God, you endure pain while suffering unjustly. ²⁰If you endure when you are beaten for doing wrong, what credit is that? But if you endure when you do right and suffer for it, you have God's approval. ²¹For to this you have been called, because Christ also suffered for you, leaving you an example, so that you should follow in his steps.

²²“He committed no sin, and no deceit was found in his mouth.”

²³When he was abused, he did not return abuse; when he suffered, he did not threaten; but he entrusted himself to the one who judges justly. ²⁴He himself bore our sins in his body on the cross, so that, free from sins, we might live for righteousness; by his wounds you have been healed. ²⁵For you were going astray like sheep, but now you have returned to the shepherd and guardian of your souls.

THE ALLELUIA

Hymnal 206 / 205

Al - le - lu - ia, al - le - lu - ia, al - le - lu - ia!

Solo The Shepherd calls, his voice is true;
He names his own, and leads them through;
From death to life, from fear made new: Alleluia.

All Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia!

THE GOSPEL: John 10:1-10

Celebrant + The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to John.

People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Jesus said, ¹“Very truly, I tell you, anyone who does not enter the sheepfold by the gate but climbs in by another way is a thief and a bandit. ²The one who enters by the gate is the shepherd of the sheep. ³The gatekeeper opens the gate for him, and the sheep hear his voice. He calls his own sheep by name and leads them out. ⁴When he has brought out all his own, he goes ahead of them, and the sheep follow him because they know his voice. ⁵They will not follow a stranger, but they will run from him because they do not know the voice of strangers.” ⁶Jesus used this figure of speech with them, but they did not understand what he was saying to them.

⁷So again Jesus said to them, “Very truly, I tell you, I am the gate for the sheep. ⁸All who came before me are thieves and bandits; but the sheep did not listen to them. ⁹I am the gate. Whoever enters by me will be saved, and will come in and go out and find pasture. ¹⁰The thief comes only to steal and kill and destroy. I came that they may have life, and have it abundantly.”

Celebrant The Gospel of the Lord.

People Praise to you, Lord Christ.

THE INTERCESSIONS (Please kneel as able or be seated.)

Don Sheetz

Intercessor Risen Shepherd, you call your Church by name: cut through the noise of every false voice, and give us ears to hear you alone, and courage to follow.

Lord, in your mercy,

All hear our prayer.

Intercessor For the leaders of the world: that they may not exploit or scatter, but guard the vulnerable and seek the lost.

Lord, in your mercy,

All hear our prayer.

Intercessor For this community: that we may be a place of safe pasture, not performance; a place of truth, not pretense; a place where the wounded are tended and the lost are found.

Lord, in your mercy,

All hear our prayer.

Intercessor For those who feel unseen or unnamed, especially _____: that Christ may call them again by name, and lead them out of fear into freedom.

Lord, in your mercy,

All hear our prayer.

Intercessor For those walking in danger, confusion, or despair: that they may know the Shepherd who does not abandon the flock, but lays down his life for them.

Lord, in your mercy,

All hear our prayer.

Intercessor For the departed, especially _____: that they may dwell in the eternal fold, where none are lost and all are gathered into one.

Lord, in your mercy,

All hear our prayer.

Intercessor For what else shall we pray?

Congregation is invited to say intentions aloud or in silence.

Celebrant Let us all pray together,

All Grant these our prayers, O Father, for Jesus Christ's sake, our only Mediator and Advocate. Amen.

THE CONFESSION & ABSOLUTION

Celebrant Let us confess our sins against God and our neighbor.

(A moment of silence is observed.)

Most merciful God,

All we confess that we have not listened for your voice. We have followed what is louder, easier, and more flattering. You have called us by name, and we have answered to strangers. You have led us toward life, and we have chosen what diminishes us. We have trusted in ourselves, and feared what we cannot control. We have wandered, and others have been harmed by our wandering. Forgive us. Find us, restore us, and lead us again in paths of truth and life; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Celebrant Almighty God have mercy on you, + forgive you all your sins through our Lord Jesus Christ, strengthen you in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep you in eternal life. Amen.

THE PEACE (Please stand as able.)

Celebrant The peace of the Lord be always with you.

People And also with you.

The Ministers and People exchange signs of peace in the name of the Lord.

THE OFFERTORY SENTENCE (Please stand as able.)

Celebrant The Lord be with you.
People And also with you.
Celebrant Lift up your hearts.
People We lift them to the Lord.
Celebrant Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
People It is right to give our thanks and praise.

Worship and praise belong to you, Author of all being. Your power sustains, your love restores, our broken world. You are unceasingly at work, from chaos bringing order and filling emptiness with life.

Christ, raised from the dead, proclaims the dawn of hope. He lives in us that we may walk in light.

Your Spirit is fire in us, your breath is power to purge our sin and warm our hearts to love.

As children of your redeeming purpose, freed by him who burst from the tomb and opened the gate of life, we offer you our praise, with angels and archangels and the whole company of heaven, singing the hymn of your unending glory:

THE SANCTUS

Hymnal S-129

Powell

Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly Lord, God of pow-er and might, hea - ven and earth are full of your glo - ry. Ho - san - na in the high - est. Bless - ed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Ho - san - na in the high - est._____

Praise and thanksgiving be to you, Lord of all, for by the Cross eternal life is ours and death is swallowed up in victory. In the first light of Easter glory broke from the tomb and changed the women's sorrow into joy.

From the Garden the mystery shone clear that he whom they had loved and lost is with us now in every place for ever.

Making himself known in the breaking of the bread, speaking peace to the fearful disciples, greeting fishermen on the shore, he renewed the promise of his presence and of new birth in the Spirit who sets the seal of freedom on your sons and daughters.

Before he was given up to suffering and death, recalling the night of Israel's release, the night in which slaves walked free, at supper with his disciples he took bread and offered you thanks.

He broke the bread, and gave it to them, saying:

"Take, eat. This is my Body: it is broken for you."

After supper, he took the cup, he offered you thanks, and gave it to them saying:

"Drink this, all of you. This is my Blood of the new covenant; it is poured out for you, and for all, that sins may be forgiven.

Do this in remembrance of me."

We now obey your Son's command

All We recall his blessed passion and death, his glorious resurrection and ascension;
and we look for the coming of his Kingdom.

Made one with him, we offer you these gifts and with them ourselves a single, holy living sacrifice.

Hear us, most merciful Father, and send your Holy Spirit upon us and upon this bread and this wine, that, overshadowed by your Spirit's life-giving power, they may be the Body and Blood of your Son, and we may be kindled with the fire of your love and renewed for the service of your Kingdom.

Help us, who are baptized into the fellowship of Christ's Body to live and work to your praise and glory; may we grow together in unity and love until at last, in your new creation, we enter into our heritage in the company of the Virgin Mary, the apostles, and prophets, and of all our brothers and sisters living and departed.

Through Jesus Christ our Lord, with whom, and in whom, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, all honor and glory be to you, Lord of all ages, world without end. Amen.

THE LORD'S PRAYER

Celebrant And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,
Our Father,

All who art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever and ever. Amen.

THE FRACTION

Celebrant We break this bread to share in the Body of Christ.

People Though we are many, we are One Body, because we all share in one bread.

Celebrant The Gifts of God for the People of God.

THE AGNUS DEI

Hymnal S-163

Lamb of God

Lamb of God, you take a - way the sins of the world: have mer - cy on us. Lamb of God, you take a - way the sins of the world: have mer - cy on us.
Lamb of God, you take a - way the sins of the world: grant us peace.

Everyone is welcome to receive Christ's Body and Blood in our Church. If you do not wish to receive either the bread or the wine, please cross your arms and a short blessing will be said. You are also welcome to intinct the bread into the chalice if you prefer not to drink directly from the chalice. (Though, to be honest, it is fortified with extra alcohol to kill germs. If you don't drink, it the priest must, and then the announcements can get a bit entertaining after Mass.)

Gluten-free wafers are also available upon request.

Congregants worshiping on YouTube or Zoom may say the following:

THE SPIRITUAL COMMUNION PRAYER

Jesus, I believe that you are truly present in the Blessed Sacrament of the Altar. I love you above all things, and long for you in my soul. Since I cannot receive you in the Sacrament of your Body and Blood, come spiritually into my heart. Cleanse and strengthen me with your grace, Lord Jesus, and let me never be separated from you. May I live in you, and you in me, in this life and in the life to come. Amen.

THE COMMUNION ANTHEM

Living Generously | Easter 4 - Acts 2: 42-47

Easter is not a Sunday; It's a season! It's the time we celebrate new beginnings — baptisms, weddings, graduations. It's also the holiest time of year. It's impossible to confine the wonderful news of Christ's resurrection to one Sunday. Did you ever have news that was so exciting that you couldn't wait to share it with others? The Good News of the Resurrection that fills our spirits with joy is about the abiding love and healing power that Jesus shares with us. All of God's gifts are ready to burst forth to serve our neighbors and share our love with a world in need.

Men's Group begins new book study

The Men's Group's next book is Why Does The World Exist? by Jim Holt. An engaging exploration of one of the biggest questions in philosophy and science: why there is something rather than nothing. Through conversations with philosophers, physicists, and theologians, Holt examines a range of possible answers in a way that is thoughtful, accessible, and often witty. Join us on Thursdays at 8:30 am in Michael's Room -- all are welcome!

Love to sing? We have a place for you.

The St. Michael's Choir is looking for new voices—no experience required (and we're nicer than your high school choir director!). With patient guidance from Lukas Hasler and Matthew Cook, you'll grow in confidence and skill while making beautiful music together. Not ready for every Sunday? You can also join us for special concerts and seasonal events—and yes, there may be snacks. To learn more, join us at our next rehearsal, speak to any choir member, or contact Lukas at lukas.hasler@stmikescdm.org.

Walk the St. Michael's Labyrinth on World Labyrinth Day

On Saturday, May 2, join a global movement of prayer and peace for the 17th annual World Labyrinth Day. At 1:00 pm local time, people around the world will "Walk as One at 1," creating a wave of quiet reflection and hope across every time zone.
