

THE SECOND SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST

JUNE 7, 2026 • 9:30 AM

*“Faith is not the belief that God will do what you want.
Faith is the courage to do what God asks.”*

— Rowan Williams

Welcome to St. Michael and All Angels!

We are delighted to have you with us today. This bulletin has been designed to help you worship with us. Please note that wherever it says “stand, sit, kneel” (Episcopalian Calisthenics!), these are only suggestions. In general, we Stand to Praise; Sit to Listen; and Kneel to Ask. You are welcome to do whatever you are able or find most comfortable.

We hope you will not find our silence before the liturgy to be a lack of hospitality. We merely have a custom of keeping the silence before the liturgy as a time of preparation and talking to God. There’s an old adage which says, “Before liturgy, talk to God. During liturgy, let God talk to you. After liturgy, talk to each other.” We will be very enthusiastic to talk with you—and each other—after the service.

Please remember St. Michael’s in your prayers and we hope you will return to worship with us again!

Flowers for the Altar

Each Sunday, members of the congregation may sponsor altar flowers, chapel flowers, and the Aumbry Candle in thanksgiving for all the blessings of this life or in memory of loved ones. Call the church office at (949) 644-0463 or make your dedication via our website at <https://stmikescdm.org/altar-flowers/>

THE OPENING ACCLAMATION

Celebrant Blessed be God: Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.
All And blessed be God's kingdom, now and for ever. Amen.

THE COLLECT FOR PURITY

Celebrant Blessed Lord,
All to whom the future is always open, and from whom no possibility is hidden: cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, that we may trust you more than our fears, follow you more than our certainties, and love you more than ourselves; through Christ our Lord. Amen.

THE SUMMARY OF THE LAW (St. Michael's "Mission Statement")

Celebrant Hear what our Lord Jesus Christ says:
You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your mind. This is the first and great commandment. And the second is like unto it: You shall love your neighbor as yourself. On these two commandments hang all the Law and the Prophets.

THE COLLECT OF THE DAY

Celebrant The Lord be with you.
People And also with you.
Celebrant Let us pray.

O God, from whom all good proceeds: Grant that by your inspiration we may think those things that are right, and by your merciful guiding may do them; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

THE FIRST READING: Genesis 12:1-9

Susan Brown

Reader A Reading from the book of Genesis.

¹Now the LORD said to Abram, “Go from your country and your kindred and your father’s house to the land that I will show you. ²I will make of you a great nation, and I will bless you, and make your name great, so that you will be a blessing. ³I will bless those who bless you, and the one who curses you I will curse; and in you all the families of the earth shall be blessed.”

⁴So Abram went, as the LORD had told him; and Lot went with him. Abram was seventy-five years old when he departed from Haran. ⁵Abram took his wife Sarai and his brother’s son Lot, and all the possessions that they had gathered, and the persons whom they had acquired in Haran; and they set forth to go to the land of Canaan. When they had come to the land of Canaan, ⁶Abram passed through the land to the place at Shechem, to the oak of Moreh. At that time the Canaanites were in the land. ⁷Then the LORD appeared to Abram, and said, “To your offspring I will give this land.” So he built there an altar to the LORD, who had appeared to him.

⁸From there he moved on to the hill country on the east of Bethel, and pitched his tent, with Bethel on the west and Ai on the east; and there he built an altar to the LORD and invoked the name of the LORD. ⁹And Abram journeyed on by stages toward the Negeb.

THE PSALM: Psalm 33:1-13

Mode 6

© Saint Meinrad Archabbey

¹Ring out your joy to the LORD, O you just;
for praise is fitting for the upright.
²Give thanks to the LORD upon the harp;
with a ten-stringed lute sing him songs.
³O sing him a song that is new;
play skillfully with shouts of joy.

⁴For the word of the LORD is faithful, and all his works to be trusted.
⁵The LORD loves justice and right,
and his merciful love fills the earth.
⁶By the word of the LORD the heav'ns were made,
by the breath of his mouth all their host.

⁷As in a flask, he collects the waves of the ocean;
he stores up the depths of the sea.
⁸Let all the earth love the LORD,
all who live in the world revere him.
⁹He spoke, and it came to be.
He commanded; it stood in place.

¹¹The designs of the LORD stand forever,
the plans of his heart from age to age.
¹²Blessed the nation whose God is the LORD,
the people he has chosen as his heritage.
¹³From the heavens the LORD looks forth;
he sees all the children of mortals.

THE SECOND READING: Romans 4:13-25 (Please be seated.)

Louise Stover

Reader A Reading from Paul's letter to the Church in Rome.

¹³The promise that he would inherit the world did not come to Abraham or to his descendants through the law but through the righteousness of faith. ¹⁴If it is the adherents of the law who are to be the heirs, faith is null and the promise is void. ¹⁵For the law brings wrath; but where there is no law, neither is there violation.

¹⁶For this reason it depends on faith, in order that the promise may rest on grace and be guaranteed to all his descendants, not only to the adherents of the law but also to those who share the faith of Abraham (for he is the father of all of us, ¹⁷as it is written, “I have made you the father of many nations”)—in the presence of the God in whom he believed, who gives life to the dead and calls into existence the things that do not exist. ¹⁸Hoping against hope, he believed that he would become “the father of many nations,” according to what was said, “So numerous shall your descendants be.” ¹⁹He did not weaken in faith when he considered his own body, which was already as good as dead (for he was about a hundred years old), or when he considered the barrenness of Sarah’s womb. ²⁰No distrust made him waver concerning the promise of God, but he grew strong in his faith as he gave glory to God, ²¹being fully convinced that God was able to do what he had promised. ²²Therefore his faith “was reckoned to him as righteousness.” ²³Now the words, “it was reckoned to him,” were written not for his sake alone, ²⁴but for ours also. It will be reckoned to us who believe in him who raised Jesus our Lord from the dead, ²⁵who was handed over to death for our trespasses and was raised for our justification.

THE GOSPEL: Matthew 9:9-13, 18-26

Celebrant ✦ The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Matthew.

People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

⁹As Jesus was walking along, he saw a man called Matthew sitting at the tax booth; and he said to him, “Follow me.” And he got up and followed him.

¹⁰And as he sat at dinner in the house, many tax collectors and sinners came and were sitting with him and his disciples. ¹¹When the Pharisees saw this, they said to his disciples, “Why does your teacher eat with tax collectors and sinners?” ¹²But when he heard this, he said, “Those who are well have no need of a physician, but those who are sick. ¹³Go and learn what this means, ‘I desire mercy, not sacrifice.’ For I have come to call not the righteous but sinners.”

¹⁸While he was saying these things to them, suddenly a leader of the synagogue came in and knelt before him, saying, “My daughter has just died; but come and lay your hand on her, and she will live.” ¹⁹And Jesus got up and followed him, with his disciples. ²⁰Then suddenly a woman who had been suffering from hemorrhages for twelve years came up behind him and touched the fringe of his cloak, ²¹for she said to herself, “If I only touch his cloak, I will be made well.” ²²Jesus turned, and seeing her he said, “Take heart, daughter; your faith has made you well.” And instantly the woman was made well. ²³When Jesus came to the leader’s house and saw the flute players and the crowd making a commotion, ²⁴he said, “Go away; for the girl is not dead but sleeping.” And they laughed at him. ²⁵But when the crowd had been put outside, he went in and took her by the hand, and the girl got up. ²⁶And the report of this spread throughout that district.

THE SERMON (Please be seated.)

The Rev’d Susan Stanton

THE CREED (Please stand as able.)

Celebrant We believe

All in one God, the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father, God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, of one Being with the Father. Through him all things were made. For us and for our salvation he came down from heaven: by the power of the Holy Spirit he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary, and was made man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate; he suffered death and was buried. On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures; he ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son. With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified. He has spoken through the Prophets. We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church. We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins. We look for the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world to come. Amen.

THE INTERCESSIONS (Please kneel as able or be seated.)

Melinda Rader

Intercessor Let us pray to God, who calls us from what is familiar into the adventure of grace. For the Church throughout the world, that we may follow Christ wherever he leads, even when the path is unclear; let us pray to the Lord.

All Hear our prayer.

Intercessor For this parish of St. Michael and All Angels, especially as we prepare for seasons of change and growth, that we may move forward with courage rather than fear; let us pray to the Lord.

All Hear our prayer.

Intercessor For the nations of the world, and for all in authority, that leaders may seek wisdom, justice, and mercy above ambition and power; let us pray to the Lord.

All Hear our prayer.

Intercessor For those standing at crossroads in life, facing decisions, uncertainty, loss, or transition, that they may know your presence beside them; let us pray to the Lord.

All Hear our prayer.

Intercessor For the sick, the anxious, and the discouraged, especially _____, that the Christ who healed the suffering woman and raised the dead may bring hope and restoration; let us pray to the Lord.

All Hear our prayer.

Intercessor For the departed, especially _____, who now see face to face what we know only by faith; let us pray to the Lord.

All Hear our prayer.

Intercessor For what else shall we pray?

Intentions may be offered.

Celebrant Let us pray together.

All Grant these our prayers, O Father, for Jesus Christ's sake, our only Mediator and Advocate. Amen.

THE CONFESSION & ABSOLUTION

Celebrant God continually calls us beyond fear into trust, beyond safety into faithfulness, beyond ourselves into love. Yet we often cling to what is familiar and refuse the freedom God offers. Let us confess our sins against God and our neighbor.

Most merciful God,

All we confess that we have preferred security to faith, comfort to compassion, and caution to love. We have resisted your call when it demanded courage. We have doubted your promises when circumstances seemed impossible. We have judged others rather than welcomed them as Christ welcomed us. Forgive what we have been, amend what we are, and direct what we shall be; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Celebrant Almighty God have mercy on you, + forgive you all your sins through our Lord Jesus Christ, strengthen you in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep you in eternal life. Amen.

THE PEACE (Please stand as able.)

Celebrant The peace of the Lord be always with you.

People And also with you.

THE PRESENTATION VERSE

Glory Be to the Father (Gloria Patri)

Henry Wellington Greatorex

Glo-ry be to the Fa-ther, and to the Son, and to the Ho-ly Ghost; As it was in the begin-ning, is now, and ev-er shall be,
World with-out end. A - men, A - men.

The musical score is written in G major (one sharp) and 4/4 time. It consists of four systems of music, each with a vocal line on a treble clef staff and a piano accompaniment on a bass clef staff. The lyrics are placed between the staves. The piece concludes with a double bar line.

Celebrant Lift up your hearts.
People We lift them to the Lord.
Celebrant Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
People It is right to give him thanks and praise.

It is truly right, and our greatest joy, to give you thanks and praise, O God of Abraham, Sarah, Matthew, and all who trust in your promises.

You call your people out from places of certainty into journeys of faith. You spoke to Abraham, and he went. You called Matthew, and he rose from his table and followed. Again and again, you summon your people beyond what they can see, into the freedom of your Kingdom.

When fear held us captive, you did not abandon us. Through prophets and saints you renewed your promises. In the fullness of time, you sent your Son Jesus Christ, who welcomed sinners, healed the suffering, raised the fallen, and revealed the wideness of your mercy.

By his death he destroyed death. By his resurrection he opened before us the path of everlasting life.

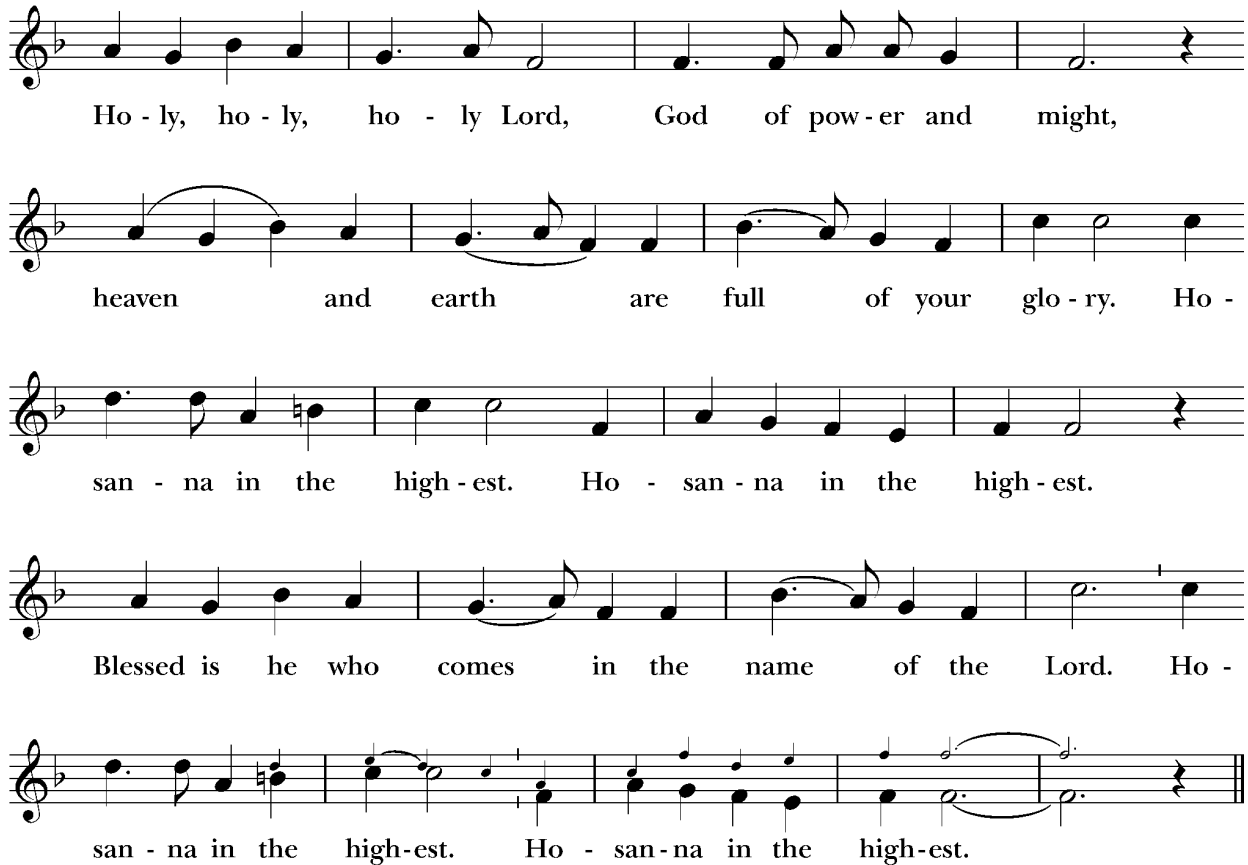

Therefore with angels and archangels, and with all the company of heaven, we proclaim your great and glorious Name, for ever praising you and saying:

THE SANCTUS

Hymnal S-125

Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of power and might

Richard Proulx

Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly Lord, God of pow - er and might, heaven and earth are full of your glo - ry. Ho - san - na in the high - est. Ho - san - na in the high - est.
Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Ho - san - na in the high - est. Ho - san - na in the high - est.

Holy and gracious God, send your Holy Spirit upon us and upon these gifts of bread and wine, that they may be for us the Body and Blood of your Son, the food of eternal life.

On the night before he died for us, Jesus took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said: "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is broken for you."

After supper he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said: "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for all for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

Therefore we proclaim the mystery of faith:

All Christ has died; Christ is risen; Christ will come again.

Gather us, O Lord, into the fellowship of all who have trusted your promises. Make us bold in faith, generous in mercy, and steadfast in hope. Teach us to follow where Christ leads, even when we cannot see the destination, trusting that your grace is sufficient and your love unfailing.

Bring to completion your new creation, that every creature in heaven and on earth may join the everlasting song of praise: Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, one God, world without end. Amen.

THE LORD'S PRAYER

Celebrant And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,
Our Father,

All who art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever and ever. Amen.

THE FRACTION

Celebrant We break this bread to share in the Body of Christ.

Lamb of God, you take a - way the sins of the world: grant us peace.

Everyone is welcome to receive Christ's Body and Blood in our Church. If you do not wish to receive either the bread or the wine, please cross your arms and a short blessing will be said. You are also welcome to intinct the bread into the chalice if you prefer not to drink directly from the chalice. (Though, to be honest, it is fortified with extra alcohol to kill germs. If you don't drink it, the priest must, and then the announcements can get a bit entertaining after Mass.)

Gluten-free wafers are also available upon request.

Congregants worshiping on YouTube or Zoom may say the following:

THE SPIRITUAL COMMUNION PRAYER

Jesus, I believe that you are truly present in the Blessed Sacrament of the Altar. I love you above all things, and long for you in my soul. Since I cannot receive you in the Sacrament of your Body and Blood, come spiritually into my heart. Cleanse and strengthen me with your grace, Lord Jesus, and let me never be separated from you. May I live in you, and you in me, in this life and in the life to come. Amen.

THE BENEDICTION (Please stand as able.)

May the God who called Abraham into an unknown future give you courage for the road ahead; May Christ, who welcomed tax collectors, sinners, and saints alike, fill you with mercy and compassion; And may the Holy Spirit, who brings life where the world sees only impossibility, strengthen your faith, enlarge your hope, and deepen your love; And the blessing of God Almighty, ✚ Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, be among you, and remain with you always. Amen.

Living Generously | Pentecost 2 - Matthew 9:9-13, 18-26

Again and again, Jesus crosses lines of conventional respectability to eat with the wrong people, listen to the desperate, and restore hope where hope is lost. We might hear this as a stewardship story as much as a healing story. Stewardship is not simply careful management of what we already have; it's the faithful offering of our lives for the mercy-shaped mission of God. Jesus says, "I desire mercy, not sacrifice," reminding us that our gifts and ministries are measured by how we welcome, heal, and restore.

Diocese invited to join Commission on LGBTQ+ Ministries at L.A. Pride June 14

The Bishop's Commission on LGBTQ+ Ministries warmly invites the Episcopal Diocese of Los Angeles community and friends to join the Annual L.A. Pride Parade on Sunday, June 14 at 11 a.m.

"This year's LA Pride theme, 'Rising with Pride,' calls us to show up with courage, joy, and faith — bearing witness to the Way of Love in the heart of our city," planners say. "As a diocese, our presence at Pride is more than participation—it is proclamation. Together, we embody a Church that celebrates, affirms, and stands alongside LGBTQ+ people as beloved children of God. We will gather as an official diocesan parade contingent, offering a visible and faithful witness of inclusion and love. A Holy Eucharist service will be offered prior to the parade, with Bishop-elect Rev. Dr. Antonio José Gallardo Lucena grounding our witness in prayer and community."

"Now more than ever, we are called to be visible in our faith in Christ—proclaiming that all of God's children deserve dignity, regardless of sexual orientation or gender identity," said Thomas Diaz, chair of the Bishop's Commission on LGBTQ+ Ministries. "We are called to be bearers of that love, making it known that the Episcopal Diocese of Los Angeles not only welcomes you, but affirms that all LGBTQ+ people are beloved children of God."

Registration is required to be part of our diocesan parade contingent. To sign up as an individual or as a congregation, please email: edlalgbtqinfo@gmail.com. Registration link and additional details to come.

Ordination and Consecration of the 8th Bishop of Los Angeles

A new online hub of information related to the upcoming series of events welcoming the Rev. Dr. Antonio J. Gallardo L. as eighth bishop of the Episcopal Diocese of Los Angeles is set to launch very soon. Produced in English and Spanish, the webpages offer details of the July 11 consecration at All Saints Church in Pasadena and concurrent watch parties around the diocese; the July 12 installation at St. John's Cathedral during Evensong preceded by the afternoon downtown "Walk for Love and Truth"; and upcoming summer Saturday celebrations in each of the diocese's 10 geographic deaneries. Topics include ticketing for the consecration and installation, opportunities to share in giving gifts planned for the new bishop, and arrangements for a July 10 clergy gathering with Presiding Bishop Sean Rowe. A special edition of the Episcopal News Update -- emailed May 29 to all subscribers -- provides links to the new website, which has been created by Samantha Wylie, diocesan program officer and Diocesan Convention coordinator, working in collaboration with the consecration and transition committees. For the link, visit our Facebook Page at <https://www.facebook.com/SMAACDM>.

Livestream Viewing: An Evening with Raphael Warnock

As part of our Adult Christian Education program here at Saint Michael's, we will gather in our Davis Library on Friday, June 19, at 4:00 pm Pacific to view the livestream from Washington National Cathedral.

Guests are warmly invited, though not required, to bring a potluck hors d'oeuvre to share as we enjoy fellowship and conversation following the event.

The Rev. Raphael G. Warnock, pastor of Ebenezer Baptist Church and U.S. Senator from Georgia, returns to Washington National Cathedral for a powerful conversation on faith, democracy, and moral imagination. Together with Canon Theologian Kelly Brown Douglas and Canon Missioner Leonard L. Hamlin, they explore the urgent themes of Senator Warnock's new book, The Crooked Places Made Straight, a prophetic call to reach for the highest and noblest aspects of our national character.

Speakers will examine six crises at the center of American life: voting rights and voter suppression, gun violence, mass incarceration, the persistence of poverty, dark money in politics and the climate emergency.

Sunday Conversations: Meet the Author, Sarah Rosenson

Join us after the service on Sunday, June 28, at 11:00 am in St. Michael's Davis Library for the next gathering of our Sunday Conversations forum, featuring author Sarah Rosenson, who will discuss her new book, Fan Fiction on the Book of Genesis: A Guide to Close Reading of and Creative Writing on the Bible. Sarah's book explores the many questions left open in the first book of the Bible, inviting readers to imagine what the characters might have thought, felt, or said. These questions can serve as prompts for discussion, reflection, or creative writing. Some chapters also look at paintings by famous artists depicting scenes from Genesis, and how those artists seem to have answered some of the same questions visually. Sarah is the daughter-in-law and sister-in-law of St. Michael's members Peggy and Kim Montgomery. Parishioners are encouraged to gather in the Davis Library, where we will watch the presentation together on the big screen.

Coffee & Conversation: Wednesdays at 3:30pm

Coffee & Conversation is a new ongoing social gathering at St. Michael's, offering a relaxed afternoon space for good coffee, thoughtful conversation, and fellowship. Inspired by the lively discussions that happen before our Tuesday morning Lectionary Study, this casual gathering is a wonderful opportunity to get to know some of our parish members in an informal setting. Whether you're new to St. Michael's or have been here for years, there's always room at the table. Coffee & Conversation meets Wednesdays at 3:30 p.m. All are welcome.

Love to sing? We have a place for you.

The St. Michael's Choir is looking for new voices—no experience required (and we're nicer than your high school choir director!). With patient guidance from Lukas Hasler and Matthew Cook, you'll grow in confidence and skill while making beautiful music together. Not ready for every Sunday? You can also join us for special concerts and seasonal events—and yes, there may be snacks. To learn more, join us at our next rehearsal, speak to any choir member, or contact Lukas at lukas.hasler@stmikescdm.org.

Baroque Music Festival at St. Michael's

Join us at St. Michael's on Monday June 22, at 7:30 pm for A Cothen Chamber: Bach Sonatas. Masterly Bach sonatas featuring the violin and harpsichord as soloistic partners. Plus, works by the 17th-century keyboard virtuoso and notable Bach forerunner Johann Caspar Kerll performed on harpsichord and on the beautifully restored St. Michael's pipe organ. In the excellent acoustics of St. Michael and All Angels Church—the Festival's "small church" home since the beginning of the Festival. For the full Festival schedule, visit their website at <https://bmf-cdm.org/2026-programs/> -- parishioners should use promo code STM20 on checkout to receive a discount for all Festival sessions!

"Mass for Troubled Times" on St. Michael's Day, September 27

For the Feast of St. Michael and All Angels, our Sunday morning liturgy will feature Missa in Angustiis ("Nelson Mass") by Joseph Haydn. Composed in 1798 during a time of political uncertainty in Europe, Haydn's Missa in Angustiis ("Mass for troubled times") reflects both tension and hope. The work later became associated with Battle of the Nile and the victory of British Admiral Horatio Nelson, from which it gained its popular name, the Nelson Mass. Widely regarded as one of Haydn's greatest sacred works, the Mass is notable for its dramatic intensity, powerful choral writing, and brilliant interplay between soloists and orchestra.
