

THE TENTH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST

AUGUST 2, 2026 • 9:30 AM

“do justice, love kindness, walk humbly”

Micah 6:8

Welcome to St. Michael and All Angels!

We are delighted to have you with us today. This bulletin has been designed to help you worship with us. Please note that wherever it says “stand, sit, kneel” (Episcopalian Calisthenics!), these are only suggestions. In general, we Stand to Praise; Sit to Listen; and Kneel to Ask. You are welcome to do whatever you are able or find most comfortable.

We hope you will not find our silence before the liturgy to be a lack of hospitality. We merely have a custom of keeping the silence before the liturgy as a time of preparation and talking to God. There’s an old adage which says, “Before liturgy, talk to God. During liturgy, let God talk to you. After liturgy, talk to each other.” We will be very enthusiastic to talk with you—and each other—after the service.

Please remember St. Michael’s in your prayers and we hope you will return to worship with us again!

Flowers for the Altar

Each Sunday, members of the congregation may sponsor altar flowers, chapel flowers, and the Aumbry Candle in thanksgiving for all the blessings of this life or in memory of loved ones. Call the church office at (949) 644-0463 or make your dedication via our website at <https://stmikescdm.org/altar-flowers/>

THE OPENING ACCLAMATION

Lay Officiant Blessed be God: Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

All And blessed be God's kingdom, now and for ever. Amen.

THE COLLECT FOR PURITY

Lay Lay Officiant Almighty God,

All to whom every struggle is known before we speak, every hunger before we ask, and every blessing before we receive: cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, that we may cling to you with the faith of Jacob, offer to Christ the little we have without fear, and be transformed into a people of generous hope; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

THE SUMMARY OF THE LAW (St. Michael's "Mission Statement")

Lay Officiant Hear what our Lord Jesus Christ says:

You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your mind. This is the first and great commandment. And the second is like unto it: You shall love your neighbor as yourself. On these two commandments hang all the Law and the Prophets.

THE COLLECT OF THE DAY

Lay Officiant Let us pray.

Let your continual mercy, O Lord, cleanse and defend your Church; and, because it cannot continue in safety without your help, protect and govern it always by your goodness; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

THE FIRST READING: Genesis 32:22-31

Pat Albers

Reader A Reading from the book of Genesis.

²²Jacob got up at night and took his two wives, his two maids, and his eleven children, and crossed the ford of the Jabbok.²³He took them and sent them across the stream, and likewise everything that he had. ²⁴Jacob was left alone; and a man wrestled with him until daybreak. ²⁵When the man saw that he did not prevail against Jacob, he struck him on the hip socket; and Jacob's hip was put out of joint as he wrestled with him. ²⁶Then he said, "Let me go, for the day is breaking." But Jacob said, "I will not let you go, unless you bless me." ²⁷So he said to him, "What is your name?" And he said, "Jacob." ²⁸Then the man said, "You shall no longer be called Jacob, but Israel, for you have striven with God and with humans, and have prevailed." ²⁹Then Jacob asked him, "Please tell me your name." But he said, "Why is it that you ask my name?" And there he blessed him. ³⁰So Jacob called the place Peniel, saying, "For I have seen God face to face, and yet my life is preserved." ³¹The sun rose upon him as he passed Peniel, limping because of his hip.

THE PSALM: Psalm 17:1-15

Mode 6

© Saint Meinrad Archabbey

¹ O LORD, hear a cause that is just;
pay heed to my cry.

Turn your ear to my prayer:
no deceit is on my lips.

² From you may my justice come forth.
Your eyes discern what is upright.

³ Search my heart and visit me by night.
Test me by fire,
and you will find no wrong in me.

⁴ My mouth does not transgress as others do;
on account of the words of your lips,
I closely watched the paths of the violent.

⁵ I kept my steps firmly in your paths.
My feet have never faltered.

⁶ To you I call;
for you will surely heed me, O God.
Turn your ear to me;
hear these my words.

⁷ Display your merciful love.
By your right hand you deliver from their foes
those who put their trust in you.

⁸ Guard me as the apple of your eye.
Hide me in the shadow of your wings

⁹ from the violent attack of the wicked.

My foes encircle me with deadly intent.

¹⁰ Their hearts tight shut, their mouths speak proudly.

¹¹ They advance against me, and now they surround me.
Their eyes watch to strike me to the ground.

¹² They are like a lion ready to claw, like some young lion crouched in hiding.

May you give us our fill of your treasures;
may our offspring rejoice in plenty,
and leave their wealth to their children.

¹⁵ As for me, in justice,
I shall behold your face;
when I awake I shall be filled with the vision of your presence.

THE SECOND READING: Romans 9:1-5 (Please be seated.)

Louise Stover

Reader A Reading from Paul's letter to the Church in Rome.

¹I am speaking the truth in Christ—I am not lying; my conscience confirms it by the Holy Spirit—²I have great sorrow and unceasing anguish in my heart. ³For I could wish that I myself were accursed and cut off from Christ for the sake of my own people, my kindred according to the flesh. ⁴They are Israelites, and to them belong the adoption, the glory, the covenants, the giving of the law, the worship, and the promises; ⁵to them belong the patriarchs, and from them, according to the flesh, comes the Messiah, who is over all, God blessed forever. THE GOSPEL: Matthew 14:13-21

Lay Officiant ✙ The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Matthew.

People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

¹³Jesus withdrew in a boat to a deserted place by himself. But when the crowds heard it, they followed him on foot from the towns. ¹⁴When he went ashore, he saw a great crowd; and he had compassion for them and cured their sick. ¹⁵When it was evening, the disciples came to him and said, “This is a deserted place, and the hour is now late; send the crowds away so that they may go into the villages and buy food for themselves.” ¹⁶Jesus said to them, “They need not go away; you give them something to eat.” ¹⁷They replied, “We have nothing here but five loaves and two fish.” ¹⁸And he said, “Bring them here to me.” ¹⁹Then he ordered the crowds to sit down on the grass. Taking the five loaves and the two fish, he looked up to heaven, and blessed and broke the loaves, and gave them to the disciples, and the disciples gave them to the crowds. ²⁰And all ate and were filled; and they took up what was left over of the broken pieces, twelve baskets full. ²¹And those who ate were about five thousand men, besides women and children.

THE SERMON (Please be seated.)

Thomas Diaz

THE CREED (Please stand as able.)

Lay Officiant We believe

All in one God, the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father, God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, of one Being with the Father. Through him all things were made. For us and for our salvation he came down from heaven: by the power of the Holy Spirit he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary, and was made man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate; he suffered death and was buried. On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures; he ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son. With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified. He has spoken through the Prophets. We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church. We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins. We look for the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world to come. Amen.

THE INTERCESSIONS (Please kneel as able or be seated.)

Marjie Blevins

Intercessor Let us pray to the God who blesses those who seek him and satisfies those who hunger.

For the Church throughout the world; that, like Jacob, she may persevere faithfully through every trial until she receives anew the blessing of God, and, like the disciples, gladly place all she has into Christ's hands.

Lord, in your mercy.

All Hear our prayer.

Intercessor For Sean, our Presiding Bishop; Antonio, our Bishop; Shane, our priest; Thomas, our lay officiant; and all who minister in Christ's Church, that they may feed God's people with faithfulness, humility, and joy.

Lord, in your mercy.

All Hear our prayer.

Intercessor For the nations of the world, that leaders may seek justice rather than power, generosity rather than fear, and wisdom rather than pride, so that all people may live in peace.

Lord, in your mercy.

All Hear our prayer.

Intercessor For those wrestling with difficult decisions, grief, illness, addiction, loneliness, anxiety, or doubt; that they may discover God already present in the struggle, blessing them even before dawn breaks.

Lord, in your mercy.

All Hear our prayer.

Intercessor For the hungry, the poor, refugees, the sick, especially ———, and all who lack life's necessities; that Christ may multiply the generosity of his people until no one is forgotten.

Lord, in your mercy.

All Hear our prayer.

Intercessor For this parish; that we may never underestimate what God can accomplish through small acts of faith, quiet generosity, and steadfast love.

Lord, in your mercy.

All Hear our prayer.

Intercessor For those who have died, especially _____; that, having seen God face to face, they may rejoice forever in the eternal feast prepared for all God's saints.
Lord, in your mercy.

All Hear our prayer.

Intercessor For what else shall we pray?
Intentions may be offered.

Lay Officiant Let us pray together.

All Grant these our prayers, O Father, for Jesus Christ's sake, our only Mediator and Advocate. Amen.

THE CONFESSION & ABSOLUTION

Lay Officiant God is love and we are God's children. There is no room for fear in love. We love because God loved us first. Let us confess our sins in penitence and faith.
Most merciful God,

All we confess that we have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed, by what we have done, and by what we have left undone. We have trusted our scarcity more than your abundance. We have released our grip on your promises too quickly, yet held too tightly to our fears. We have failed to recognize Christ in those who hunger, and doubted that our small offerings could make any difference. Forgive us. Renew our courage. Teach us to wrestle honestly, trust deeply, and give generously, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Lay Officiant Almighty God have mercy on us, + forgive us all our sins through our Lord Jesus Christ, strengthen us in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep us in eternal life. Amen.

THE PEACE (Please stand as able.)

Lay Officiant The peace of the Lord be always with you.
People And also with you.

The Ministers and People exchange signs of peace in the name of the Lord.

THE OFFERTORY SENTENCE (Please stand as able.)

Lay Officiant Freely you have received; freely give. For every gift offered in faith becomes a blessing in the hands of God.

The Lay Thanksgiving Prayer

Lay Officiant Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

All It is right to give God thanks and praise.

Blessed are you, gracious Father, Creator of heaven and earth.

We thank you for your faithful love shown throughout every generation. You called Abraham and Sarah, blessed Isaac, and wrestled with Jacob until fear gave way to blessing. Through prophets and psalmists you taught your people never to lose hope in your mercy.

Above all, we thank you for your Son, Jesus Christ, who had compassion upon the crowds, welcomed the weary, healed the sick, and fed the hungry. Taking what seemed far too little, he revealed the abundance of your kingdom and taught us that nothing offered in love is ever wasted.

Today we give thanks that, although we cannot celebrate the Holy Eucharist, you have not left your people without grace. In this Reserved Sacrament, previously consecrated at your holy altar, we receive again the same Body and Blood of Christ, the same gift of salvation, and the same promise that he is with us always.

As we prepare to receive these holy mysteries, strengthen our faith, deepen our gratitude, unite us with Christ and with one another, and send us into the world to become bread for the hungry, hope for the discouraged, and servants of your peace.

Therefore with angels and archangels and with all the company of heaven, we praise your glorious Name, evermore saying:

THE SANCTUS

Hymnal S-125

Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of power and might

Richard Proulx

Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly Lord, God of pow - er and might, heaven and earth are full of your glo - ry. Ho - san - na in the high - est. Ho - san - na in the high - est.

Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Ho - san - na in the high - est. Ho - san - na in the high - est.

We give thanks to you, O God, for the goodness and love which you have made known to us in creation; in the calling of Israel to be your people; in your Word spoken through the prophets; and above all in the Word made flesh, Jesus, your Son. For in these last days you sent him to be incarnate from the Virgin Mary, to be the Savior and Redeemer of the world. In him, you have delivered us from evil, and made us worthy to stand before you. In him, you have brought us out of error into truth, out of sin into righteousness, out of death into life.

On the night before he died for us, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

After supper he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me.”

Therefore, according to his command, O Father,

All We remember his death,
We proclaim his resurrection,
We await his coming in glory;

And we offer our sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving to you, O Lord of all; presenting to you, from your creation, this bread and this wine.

We pray you, gracious God, to send your Holy Spirit upon these gifts that they may be the Sacrament of the Body of Christ and his Blood of the new Covenant. Unite us to your Son in his sacrifice, that we may be acceptable through him, being sanctified by the Holy Spirit. In the fullness of time, put all things in subjection under your Christ, and bring us to that heavenly country where, with St Michael and All Angels, all your saints, we may enter the everlasting heritage of your sons and daughters; through Jesus Christ our Lord, the firstborn of all creation, the head of the Church, and the author of our salvation.

By him, and with him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours,
Almighty Father, now and for ever. AMEN.

THE LORD’S PRAYER

Lay Officiant And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,
Our Father,

All who art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever and ever. Amen.

THE FRACTION

Lay Officiant We break this bread to share in the Body of Christ.

People Though we are many, we are One Body, because we all share in one bread.

sins of the world: have mer - cy on us. Lamb of God, you take a - way the sins of the world: have mer - cy on us.

Lamb of God, you take a - way the sins of the world: grant us peace.

Everyone is welcome to receive Christ's Body and Blood in our Church. If you do not wish to receive either the bread or the wine, please cross your arms and a short blessing will be said. You are also welcome to intinct the bread into the chalice if you prefer not to drink directly from the chalice. (Though, to be honest, it is fortified with extra alcohol to kill germs. If you don't drink it, the priest must, and then the announcements can get a bit entertaining after Mass.)

Gluten-free wafers are also available upon request.

Congregants worshiping on YouTube or Zoom may say the following:

THE SPIRITUAL COMMUNION PRAYER

Jesus, I believe that you are truly present in the Blessed Sacrament of the Altar. I love you above all things, and long for you in my soul. Since I cannot receive you in the Sacrament of your Body and Blood, come spiritually into my heart. Cleanse and strengthen me with your grace, Lord Jesus, and let me never be separated from you. May I live in you, and you in me, in this life and in the life to come. Amen.

THE COMMUNION ANTHEM

"Be Not Afraid" arr. Mark Hayes

THE POST-COMMUNION PRAYER (Please kneel or sit as able.)

Lay Officiant Let us pray.

Gracious Father,

All we thank you for refreshing us with this holy Communion, a sign of Christ's abiding presence among his people. As you blessed Jacob through struggle and fed the multitude through simple gifts, bless us also. Strengthen us to persevere in faith, to give generously without counting the cost, and to trust that your grace is always sufficient. Send us into the world bearing Christ's compassion, until all are welcomed at your heavenly banquet; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

ANNOUNCEMENTS (Please be seated.)

THE LAY BLESSING (Please stand as able.)

May the God who blessed Jacob strengthen us in every struggle. May Christ, who fed the multitude with bread from grateful hands, fill our hearts with confidence in his abundant mercy. May the Holy Spirit sustain us in faith, hope, and love, now and always.

Living Generously | Matthew 13:31-33, 44-52

Jesus offers one image after another for the kingdom of heaven, as if no single parable can hold the fullness of what God is doing. The kingdom is like a mustard seed, small and easily overlooked, yet becoming a place where birds can make their nests. It is like yeast hidden in flour, quietly working until the whole loaf is transformed. It is like treasure buried in a field, worth joyfully selling everything to possess. It is like a pearl of great value, recognized by one who knows what true beauty is. It is like a net drawn through the sea, gathering more than anyone can sort at first glance. Each image stretches our imagination. The kingdom is tiny and expansive, hidden and powerful, costly and joyful, ordinary and astonishing.

Jesus points us toward smaller and quieter signs of abundance: the seed that becomes shelter, the yeast that changes the whole loaf, the pearl that teaches us what is worth everything. Faithful stewardship begins when we learn to recognize the kingdom already at work among us and respond with joy!

Sunday, August 9 at 4pm: Choral Concert at St. Michael's

Assistant Choirmaster Matthew Cook will conduct a special concert of motets by Felix Mendelssohn and Hubert Parry, featuring an outstanding choir of singers from across Southern California. Sunday, September 27: St. Michael's Day "Mass for Troubled Times"

For the Feast of St. Michael and All Angels, our Sunday morning liturgy will feature Missa in Angustiis ("Nelson Mass") by Joseph Haydn. Composed in 1798 during a time of political uncertainty in Europe, Haydn's Missa in Angustiis ("Mass for Troubled Times") reflects both tension and hope. The work later became associated with Battle of the Nile and the victory of British Admiral Horatio Nelson, from which it gained its popular name, the Nelson Mass. Widely regarded as one of Haydn's greatest sacred works, the Mass is notable for its dramatic intensity, powerful choral writing, and brilliant interplay between soloists and orchestra.

Sunday, November 8: A Service of Remembrance and Hope for All Souls' Sunday

On All Souls' Sunday, the St. Michael's Choir, orchestra, and organ will present Lux Aeterna by Morton Lauridsen. Composed in 1997, Lux Aeterna is one of Lauridsen's best-known works and has become a cornerstone of the modern choral repertoire. Lauridsen selected texts from the Latin liturgy that focus on the themes of light, rest, and eternal peace. Written in memory of his mother, the work draws inspiration from the Gregorian chant tradition while combining it with Lauridsen's distinctive contemporary harmonic language.
