"I was a stranger and you welcomed me."
Matthew 25:35

Welcome to St. Michael & All Angels

We are delighted to have you with us today. This bulletin has been designed to help you worship with us. Please note that wherever it says "stand, sit, kneel" (Episcopalian Calisthenics!), these are only suggestions. In general, we Stand to Praise; Sit to Listen; and Kneel to Ask. You are welcome to do whatever you are able or find most comfortable.

We hope you will not find our silence before the liturgy to be a lack of hospitality. We merely have a custom of keeping the silence before the liturgy as a time of preparation and talking to God. There's an old adage which says, "Before liturgy, talk to God. During liturgy, let God talk to you. After liturgy, talk to each other." We will be very enthusiastic to talk with you—and each other—after the service.

Please remember St. Michael's in your prayers and we hope you will return to worship with us again!

Visiting Us for the First Time?

Please speak with an usher and ask for a visitor card. We'd love to know how you found us, make you feel at home, and keep in touch for future events at St. Michael's. You may write a prayer request on the back of the card. And we will never spam you.

Take This Bulletin Home!

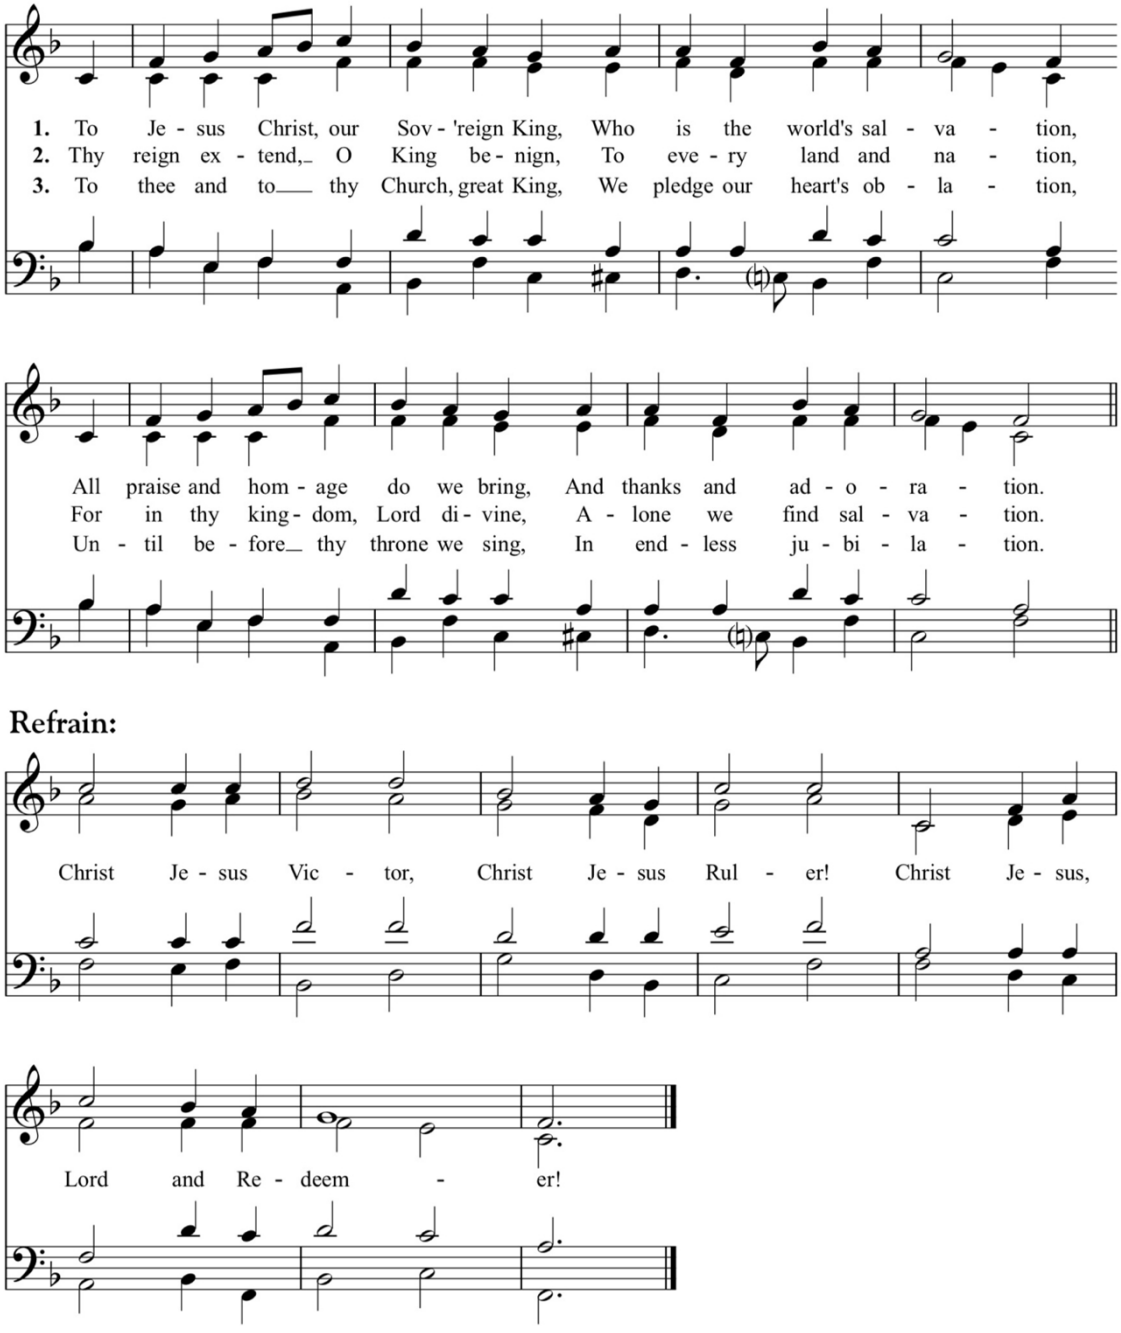

The bulletin you're holding is your handy roadmap to what's happening here over the next few months. Take one home, put it on the fridge, and let it remind you of all the good things coming up!

Flowers for the Altar

Each Sunday, members of the congregation may sponsor altar flowers, chapel flowers, and the sanctuary light in thanksgiving for all the blessings of this life or in memory of loved ones. Call the church office at (949) 644-0463 or make your dedication via our website at https://stmikescdm.org/altar-flowers/

THE INTROIT HYMN (Please stand as able.)

Tune: ICH GLAUB AN GOTT (87 87 with Refrain) Text: Martin B. Hellriegel (†1981)

4. Thy majesty shall be the praise And thanks of ev'ry nation,
   To thee the world with joy shall raise The voice of exultation.
   Christ Jesus Victor, Christ Jesus Ruler, Christ Jesus, Lord and Redeemer!

5. May God the Father, God the Son, And God the Spirit bless us!
   Let all the world praise him alone, Let solemn awe possess us.
   Christ Jesus Victor, Christ Jesus Ruler, Christ Jesus, Lord and Redeemer!

THE OPENING ACCLAMATION

Celebrant Blessed be God: ✚ Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.
People And blessed be God's kingdom, now and for ever. Amen.

THE COLLECT FOR PURITY

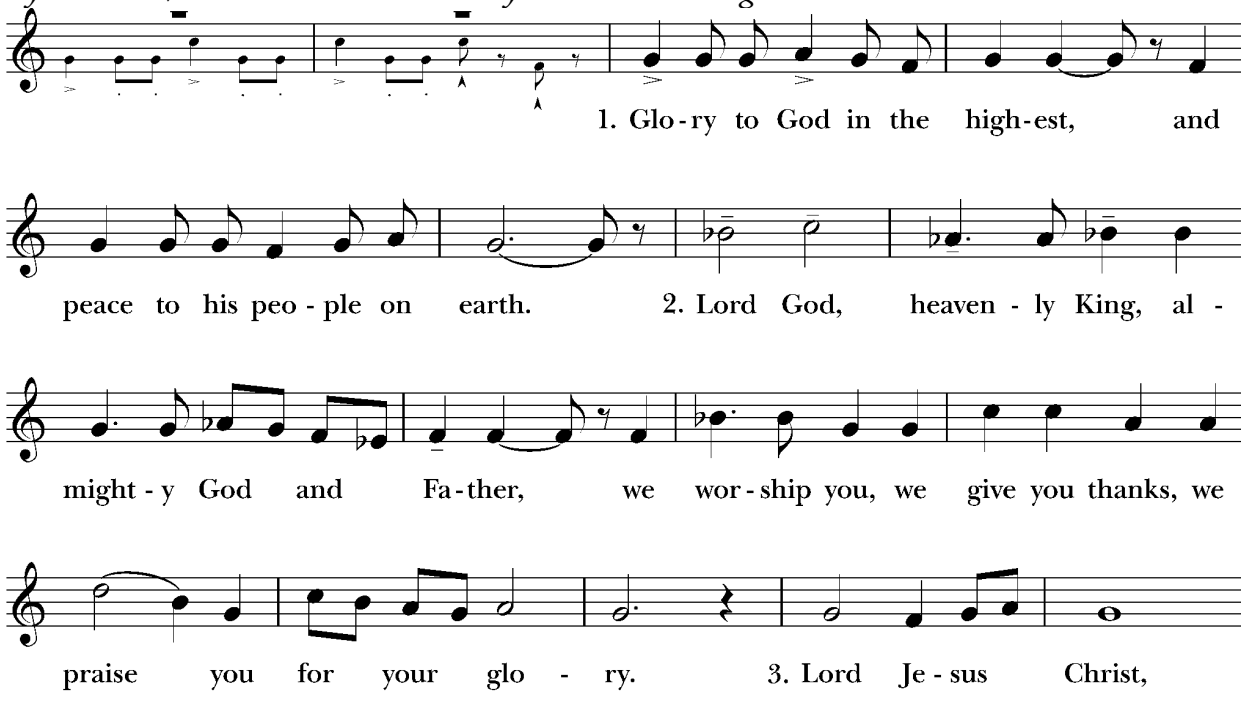

Celebrant Father of glory,
All to whom every heart is open, cleanse us by your Holy Spirit, and give light to the eyes of our hearts, that we may know your Son in the breaking of bread, and welcome him in the stranger at our door. Through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, world without end. Amen.

THE SUMMARY OF THE LAW (St. Michael's "Mission Statement")

Celebrant Hear what our Lord Jesus Christ says:
You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your mind. This is the first and great commandment. And the second is like unto it: You shall love your neighbor as yourself. On these two commandments hang all the Law and the Prophets.

THE COLLECT OF THE DAY

Celebrant The Lord be with you.
People And also with you.
Celebrant Let us pray.

Almighty and everlasting God, whose will it is to restore all things in your well-beloved Son, the King of kings and Lord of lords: Mercifully grant that the peoples of the earth, divided and enslaved by sin, may be freed and brought together under his most gracious rule; who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

Please be seated.

THE SERMON The Rev'd Shane Scott-Hamblen, ThD

THE FIRST READING: Ezekiel 34:11-16, 20-24 Michael Strong

Reader A Reading from the book of Ezekiel.

11 Thus says the Lord GOD: I myself will search for my sheep, and will seek them out. 12 As shepherds seek out their flocks when they are among their scattered sheep, so I will seek out my sheep. I will rescue them from all the places to which they have been scattered on a day of clouds and thick darkness. 13 I will bring them out from the peoples and gather them from the countries, and will bring them into their own land; and I will feed them on the mountains of Israel, by the watercourses, and in all the inhabited parts of the land.
14 I will feed them with good pasture, and the mountain heights of Israel shall be their pasture; there they shall lie down in good grazing land, and they shall feed on rich pasture on the mountains of Israel. 15 I myself will be the shepherd of my sheep, and I will make them lie down, says the Lord GOD. 16 I will seek the lost, and I will bring back the strayed, and I will bind up the injured, and I will strengthen the weak, but the fat and the strong I will destroy. I will feed them with justice.

20 Therefore, thus says the Lord GOD to them: I myself will judge between the fat sheep and the lean sheep. 21 Because you pushed with flank and shoulder, and butted at all the weak animals with your horns until you scattered them far and wide, 22 I will save my flock, and they shall no longer be ravaged; and I will judge between sheep and sheep.

23 I will set up over them one shepherd, my servant David, and he shall feed them: he shall feed them and be their shepherd. 24 And I, the LORD, will be their God, and my servant David shall be prince among them; I, the LORD, have spoken.

Reader The Word of the Lord.
People Thanks be to God.

Please stand as able and join in singing.

THE PSALM: Psalm 100 Mode 8

© Saint Meinrad Archabbey

1 Make a joyful noise to the LORD, all the earth.
2 Worship the LORD with gladness;
come into his presence with singing.
3 Know that the LORD is God.
It is he that made us, and we are his;
we are his people, and the sheep of his pasture.

4 Enter his gates with thanksgiving, and his courts with praise.
Give thanks to him, bless his name.
5 For the LORD is good;
his steadfast love endures forever,
and his faithfulness to all generations.

Please be seated.

THE SECOND READING: Ephesians 1:15-23 Kim Montgomery

Reader A Reading from Paul's letter to the Church in Ephesus.

15 I have heard of your faith in the Lord Jesus and your love toward all the saints, and for this reason 16 I do not cease to give thanks for you as I remember you in my prayers. 17 I pray that the God of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of glory, may give you a spirit of wisdom and revelation as you come to know him, 18 so that, with the eyes of your heart enlightened, you may know what is the hope to which he has called you, what are the riches of his glorious inheritance among the saints, 19 and what is the immeasurable greatness of his power for us who believe, according to the working of his great power.
20 God put this power to work in Christ when he raised him from the dead and seated him at his right hand in the heavenly places, 21 far above all rule and authority and power and dominion, and above every name that is named, not only in this age but also in the age to come. 22 And he has put all things under his feet and has made him the head over all things for the church, 23 which is his body, the fullness of him who fills all in all.

THE GOSPEL: Matthew 25:31-46

Celebrant ✚ The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Matthew.
People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Jesus said, [31]"When the Son of Man comes in his glory, and all the angels with him, then he will sit on the throne of his glory. [32]All the nations will be gathered before him, and he will separate people one from another as a shepherd separates the sheep from the goats, [33]and he will put the sheep at his right hand and the goats at the left. [34]Then the king will say to those at his right hand, 'Come, you that are blessed by my Father, inherit the kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world; [35]for I was hungry and you gave me food, I was thirsty and you gave me something to drink, I was a stranger and you welcomed me, [36]I was naked and you gave me clothing, I was sick and you took care of me, I was in prison and you visited me.' [37]Then the righteous will answer him, 'Lord, when was it that we saw you hungry and gave you food, or thirsty and gave you something to drink? [38]And when was it that we saw you a stranger and welcomed you, or naked and gave you clothing? [39]And when was it that we saw you sick or in prison and visited you?' [40]And the king will answer them, 'Truly I tell you, just as you did it to one of the least of these who are members of my family you did it to me.' [41]Then he will say to those at his left hand, 'You that are accursed, depart from me into the eternal fire prepared for the devil and his angels; [42]for I was hungry and you gave me no food, I was thirsty and you gave me nothing to drink, [43]I was a stranger and you did not welcome me, naked and you did not give me clothing, sick and in prison and you did not visit me.'
[44]Then they also will answer, 'Lord, when was it that we saw you hungry or thirsty or a stranger or naked or sick or in prison, and did not take care of you?' [45]Then he will answer them, 'Truly I tell you, just as you did not do it to one of the least of these, you did not do it to me.' [46]And these will go away into eternal punishment, but the righteous into eternal life."

THE CREED

Celebrant We believe

All in one God, the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father, God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, of one Being with the Father. Through him all things were made. For us and for our salvation he came down from heaven: by the power of the Holy Spirit he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary, and was made man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate; he suffered death and was buried. On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures; he ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son. With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified. He has spoken through the Prophets. We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church. We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins. We look for the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Please kneel as able or be seated.

THE INTERCESSIONS

Richard de Lorimier

Intercessor Shepherd of all, gather your Church wherever your people are scattered. Give our bishops, priests, and deacons a shepherd's care for those who have been driven away, and the humility to hear their story. Lord, in your mercy,

All Hear our prayer.

Intercessor Guide those who govern the nations in our time of anxiety, and all who hold authority in this land. Give them wisdom to judge fairly, courage to restrain the strong, and ears to hear those who seldom have a voice in their councils. Lord, in your mercy,

All Hear our prayer.

Intercessor Remember those who hunger, those who have fled their homes, and those in prison who wait for someone to visit. Bring them food, shelter, and the comfort of a familiar face. Lord, in your mercy,

All Hear our prayer.

Intercessor Bless the homes and families of this parish. As we gather for Thanksgiving, bring to mind someone who would welcome a place at our table, and give us the grace to ask. Lord, in your mercy,

All Hear our prayer.

Intercessor Bind up the injured, strengthen the weak, and give rest to those who care for them. We pray for the sick, especially __, and all those who have no one to pray for them or help them. Lord, in your mercy,

All Hear our prayer.

Intercessor We pray for those who have died, especially ___, and for all who grieve. Gather the departed into the kingdom prepared for them from the foundation of the world, and sustain us in the hope of rising with them in Christ. Lord, in your mercy,

All Hear our prayer.

Intercessor For what else shall we pray?

The congregation is invited to offer intentions aloud or in silence.

Celebrant Let us pray together.

All God of mercy, receive our prayers, and make us faithful in the work they ask of us; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

THE CONFESSION & ABSOLUTION

Celebrant Let us confess our sins to God, who seeks us when we have gone astray.

Silence.

Merciful Father,

All we have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed. We have passed by those who needed us, and found reasons to leave them in another's care. We have been quick to judge the lives of others, and slow to see the wounds we cause. For the sake of Jesus Christ, forgive us. Give us grace to make amends, and to love the neighbor you have given us. Amen.

Celebrant Almighty God have mercy on you, ✚ forgive you all your sins through our Lord Jesus Christ, strengthen you in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep you in eternal life. Amen.

THE OFFERTORY SENTENCE

Celebrant Christ our King has called us to his table. With glad and generous hearts, let us bring our gifts, that all may share in his bounty.

The Eucharistic Prayer

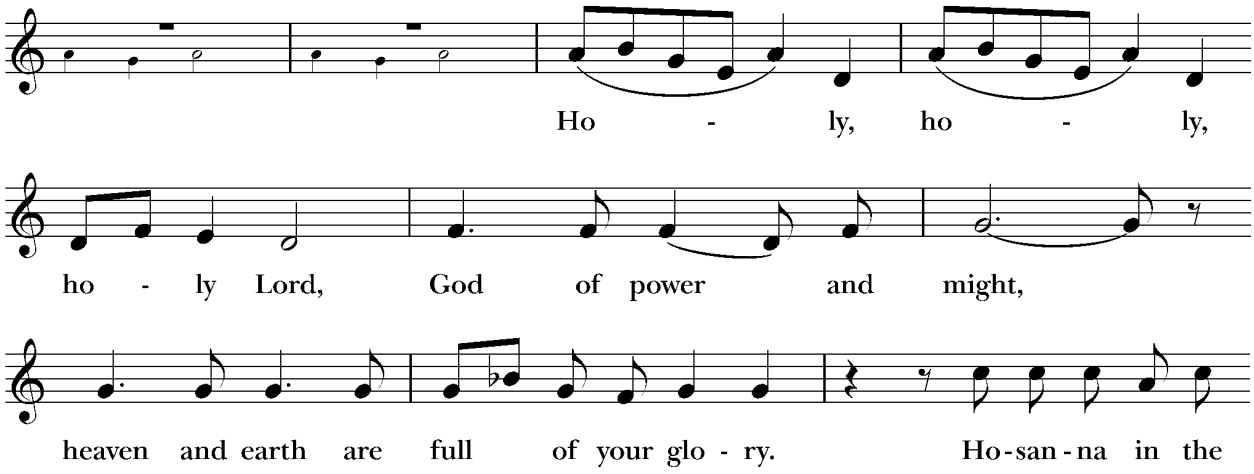

It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth.

Because you are greatly glorified in the assembly of your saints. All your creatures praise you, and your faithful servants bless you, confessing before the rulers of this world the great Name of your only Son.

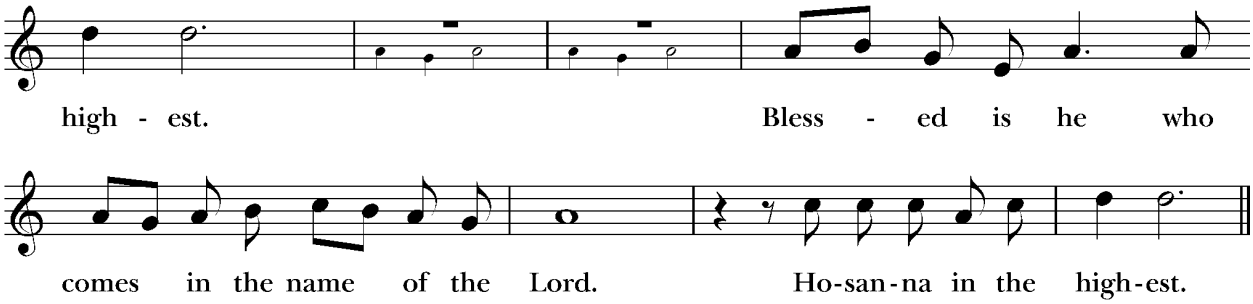

Therefore we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who for ever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:

THE SANCTUS

Hymnal S-128 Holy, holy, holy Lord Mathias

Holy Father, you made us in your image, and when we wandered far from you, you sought us out. Through the prophet Ezekiel you promised to gather the scattered, to bind up the injured, and to feed your people with justice.

In the fullness of time you sent your Son, Jesus Christ, to dwell among us. He knew hunger in the wilderness and thirst upon the cross. He received the hospitality of strangers, and broke bread with those whom others turned away. He laid down his life for his sheep. You raised him from the dead and seated him at your right hand, above all rule and authority. Even now he calls the least among us members of his own family.

On the night he was betrayed, he took bread and gave you thanks. He broke it, and gave it to his disciples, saying, "Take, eat: this is my Body, which is broken for you."

After supper he took the cup of wine, and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, saying, "Drink this, all of you: this is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for all for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

We now obey your Son's command:

All We recall his blessed passion and death, his glorious resurrection and ascension; and we look for the coming of his Kingdom.

Father, remembering all that Christ has done for us, we offer you this bread and this wine, and with them our sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving. Send your Holy Spirit upon us and upon these gifts, that they may be the Body and Blood of your Son, and that we who share in this holy meal may be one body in him.

Remember those for whom the earth yields no harvest, those driven from their homes, and those whose lives are spent behind locked doors. Give your Church a share in the tenderness of Christ, who counts as done to himself every kindness shown to one of these.

Remember also those who have died. Bring us, with St. Mary, St. Michael and All Angels, and all your saints, to that day when the Son of Man shall come in his glory, and we shall hear his voice saying, "Come, you that are blessed by my Father, inherit the kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world."

Through Christ, and with Christ, and in Christ, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, all honor and glory be to you, Father Almighty, world without end. AMEN.

THE LORD'S PRAYER

Celebrant And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,
Our Father,

All who art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever and ever. Amen.

THE FRACTION

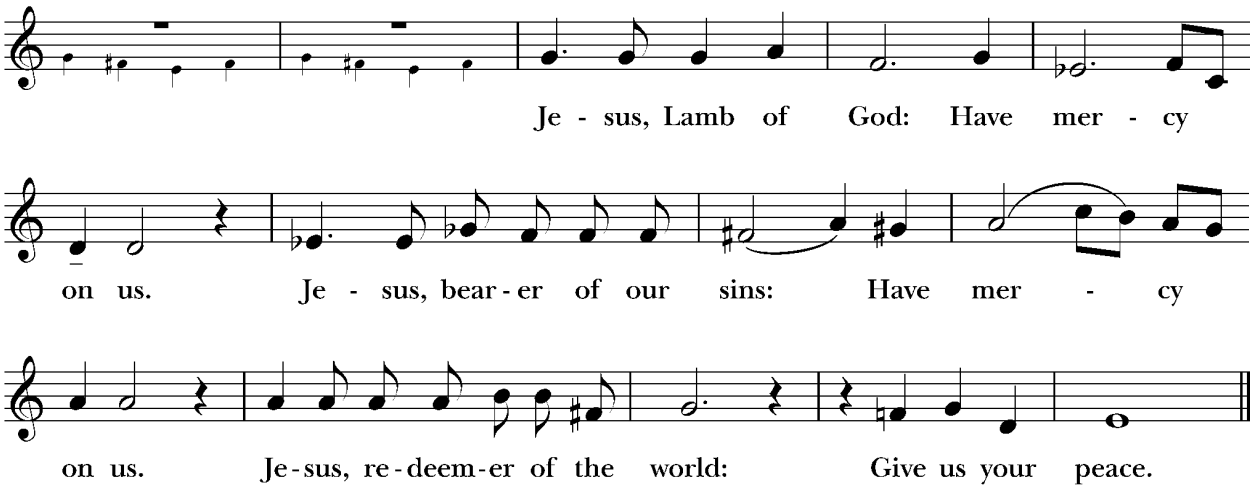

Celebrant We break this bread to share in the Body of Christ.

People Though we are many, we are One Body, because we all share in one bread.

Celebrant The Gifts of God for the People of God.

THE AGNUS DEI

Hymnal S-165 Jesus, Lamb of God Mathias

Everyone is welcome to receive Christ's Body and Blood in our Church. If you do not wish to receive either the bread or the wine, please cross your arms and a short blessing will be said. You are also welcome to intinct the bread into the chalice if you prefer not to drink directly from the chalice. (Though, to be honest, it is fortified with extra alcohol to kill germs. If you don't drink it the priest must, and then the announcements can get a bit entertaining after Mass.)

Gluten-free wafers are also available upon request.

Congregants worshiping on YouTube or Zoom may say the following:

THE SPIRITUAL COMMUNION PRAYER

Jesus, I believe that you are truly present in the Blessed Sacrament of the Altar. I love you above all things, and long for you in my soul. Since I cannot receive you in the Sacrament of your Body and Blood, come spiritually into my heart. Cleanse and strengthen me with your grace, Lord Jesus, and let me never be separated from you. May I live in you, and you in me, in this life and in the life to come. Amen.

THE COMMUNION MUSIC

"Hungarian Dance No. 1" by Johannes Brahms — EcoEcho Ensemble
"Gabriel's Oboe" (from The Mission) by Ennio Morricone

Please kneel or sit as able.

THE POST-COMMUNION PRAYER

Celebrant Let us pray.

All Gracious Father, we give you thanks that your Son has welcomed us as guests at his table, and fed us with his own Body and Blood. As we go from this place, give us time to sit with those who are lonely, bread to share with those who hunger, and grace to receive what others have to give. Through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Please be seated.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

THE BENEDICTION

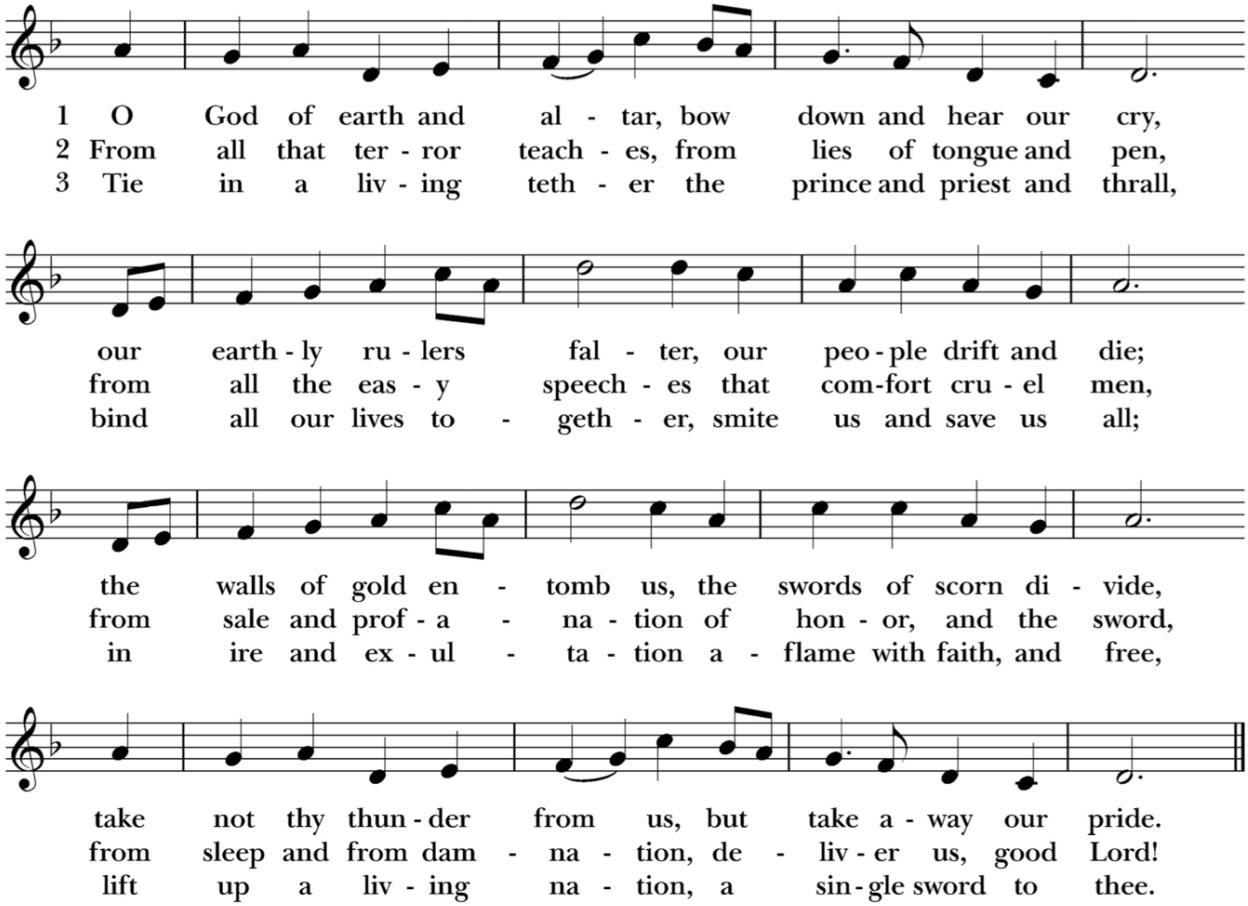

May Christ the King seek you when you are lost, bind up what is wounded, and bring you home rejoicing. And the blessing of God Almighty, ✚ the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit, be amongst you, and remain with you always. Amen.

THE DISMISSAL

Celebrant May the souls of the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, Rest in Peace.
People And Rise in Glory!
Celebrant Let us go in peace to love and serve our Lord.
People Thanks be to God.

Living Generously | Matthew 25:31–46

We count pledges, track attendance, balance budgets, and celebrate ministries. These are useful measures of institutional health, but none of them tells the whole story of our faithfulness. What if our annual reports also measured devotion, healing, belonging, redemption, and grace? The purpose of stewardship isn't simply to sustain the church as an institution. It is to equip the church to participate in God's transforming love. When we open our eyes to these deeper stories, we realize that the kingdom of heaven is hiding in plain sight.

Living Generously | A Thanksgiving Reflection

Thanksgiving is a season for pausing, remembering, and giving thanks. We gather around tables with family, friends, and neighbors; we share stories and food; we recall blessings great and small. At its heart, Thanksgiving is a reminder that gratitude is the root of generosity. When we give thanks, we recognize that what we have is a gift – and gifts are meant to be shared.

God's abundance is not limited to harvests or seasons – it is woven into the very fabric of creation and our life together. At God's table there is not only food enough, but love enough, grace enough, space enough for all.

Scarcity tells us to measure what we lack. Gratitude opens our eyes to see what overflows. When we focus on what is missing, we turn inward; when we give thanks, our hearts turn outward in generosity. Thanksgiving becomes not just a holiday but a practice of stewardship – an ongoing rhythm of noticing God's gifts and sharing them with others.

In our churches, this season is an opportunity to reflect on the many blessings God has given us: the gift of community, the gift of worship, the gift of hope and mission. Every pledge, every offering, every act of service is a way of saying, "Thank you, Lord, for your goodness, and here is my gift in return." Gratitude begets generosity, and generosity creates room for all.

So whether we are at crowded tables or quiet ones this Thanksgiving, may we pause to notice God's abundance. May we give thanks for those who came before us and for those who will come after. And may we recommit ourselves to being a people who make room – for neighbors, for strangers, for future generations – at God's ever-expanding table.

Give via IRA-qualified Charitable Distribution

Did you know that you can "avoid" paying taxes on your annual IRA required minimum distribution (RMD) with a qualified charitable distribution (QCD)?

If you are 70½ or older, and required to take an annual distribution from your IRA, you can use those funds to make a gift to St. Michael's (or any other qualified charity) to satisfy that obligation, and not pay income tax on the transfer. For 2026, individuals can give any amount up to $111,000, but it must come directly from your IRA to St. Michael's.

The QCD can satisfy your required minimum distribution for the year. This is a great option for anyone who does not itemize charitable deductions and/or anyone who does not want to incur that additional RMD income.

Be sure to consult with your financial, tax, and/or legal advisors before taking any action to ensure you're making the right decision for you.

Adopt-a-Family: Help Bring Holiday Cheer

Each year, St. Michael's partners with MOMS Orange County to bring joy to families through its annual Adopt-a-Family program. This holiday season, we're collecting gift cards for a family of seven: a single mother and her six children, including newborn twin girls. The family is facing significant financial and housing challenges, and your generosity can help provide food, clothing, and other essentials while bringing a little extra joy to their holidays.

Gift card suggestions:

- Mom: Costco, Walmart
- Son (17): Hot Topic, Hollister, Old Navy
- Daughter (7): Old Navy, Ross, Cotton On
- Daughter (5): Walmart, Ross
- Son (3): Walmart, Ross
- Twin daughters (2 months): Walmart, Burlington

Every gift card, in any amount, makes a difference. Thank you for helping us share the love and generosity of our parish community this Christmas!
