

First Sunday of Advent

November 29, 2026 • 9:30 am

Let us await his coming, not with the fear of what may end, but with the hope of what may begin.

Welcome to St. Michael & All Angels

We are delighted to have you with us today. This bulletin has been designed to help you worship with us. Please note that wherever it says "stand, sit, kneel" (Episcopalian Calisthenics!), these are only suggestions. In general, we Stand to Praise; Sit to Listen; and Kneel to Ask. You are welcome to do whatever you are able or find most comfortable.

We hope you will not find our silence before the liturgy to be a lack of hospitality. We merely have a custom of keeping the silence before the liturgy as a time of preparation and talking to God. There's an old adage which says, "Before liturgy, talk to God. During liturgy, let God talk to you. After liturgy, talk to each other." We will be very enthusiastic to talk with you—and each other—after the service.

Please remember St. Michael's in your prayers and we hope you will return to worship with us again!

Visiting Us for the First Time?

Please speak with an usher and ask for a visitor card. We'd love to know how you found us, make you feel at home, and keep in touch for future events at St. Michael's. You may write a prayer request on the back of the card. And we will never spam you.

Take This Bulletin Home!

The bulletin you're holding is your handy roadmap to what's happening here over the next few months. Take one home, put it on the fridge, and let it remind you of all the good things coming up!

Flowers for the Altar

Each Sunday, members of the congregation may sponsor altar flowers, chapel flowers, and the sanctuary light in thanksgiving for all the blessings of this life or in memory of loved ones. Call the church office at (949) 644-0463 or make your dedication via our website at https://stmikescdm.org/altar-flowers/

THE PRELUDE

Please stand and join in singing.

THE LIGHTING OF THE ADVENT WREATH

The first candle of Advent is lit. From the back of the church, the Celebrant says

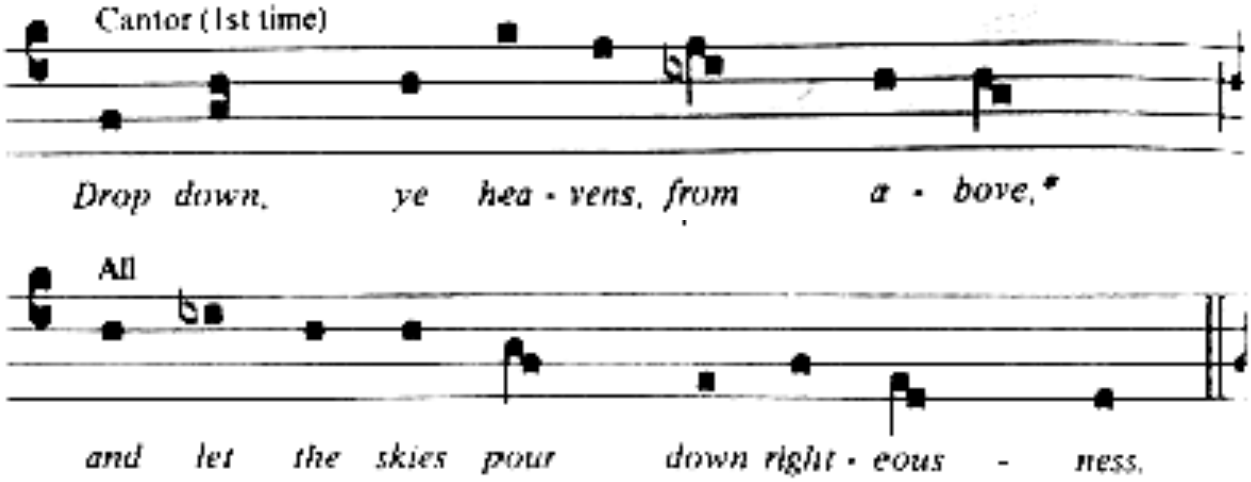

Celebrant ✚ In the name of the Father, the Son, and Holy Spirit. Let us pray together:

God of hope,

All as we kindle this light, awaken in us a longing for your coming. Where there is darkness, kindle faith; where there is fear, kindle hope; and where there is indifference, kindle love. Make us ready to receive you, in mystery now, and in glory at the last. Come, Lord Jesus. Amen.

THE INTROIT HYMN

New English Hymnal #501 Advent Prose Rorate Caeli

Be not wroth very sore, O Lord, neither remember iniquity forever: thy holy cities are a wilderness, Sion is a wilderness, Jerusalem a desolation: our holy and beautiful house, where our fathers praised thee. [Refrain]

We have sinned, and are as an unclean thing, and we do fade as a leaf: and our iniquities, like the wind, have taken us away: thou hast hid thy face from us: and hast consumed us, because of our iniquities. [Refrain]

THE OPENING ACCLAMATION

Celebrant ✚ Blessed are you, holy and living One
People You come to your people and set them free.

THE COLLECT FOR PURITY

Celebrant God of promise and expectation,

All before whom every heart lies open: awaken us from the sleep of indifference, cleanse us from all that obscures your presence, and kindle within us the light of your Holy Spirit; that we may recognize you in our midst, and welcome you at your coming; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, world without end. Amen.

THE SUMMARY OF THE LAW (St. Michael's "Mission Statement")

Celebrant Hear what our Lord Jesus Christ says:

You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your mind. This is the first and great commandment. And the second is like unto it: You shall love your neighbor as yourself. On these two commandments hang all the Law and the Prophets.

THE KYRIE

Mass VIII (Missa de Angelis) 15th-16th century

Each line will be sung by the soloist first then repeated by the people.

THE COLLECT OF THE DAY

Celebrant The Lord be with you.
People And also with you.
Celebrant Let us pray.

Almighty God, give us grace to cast away the works of darkness, and put on the armor of light, now in the time of this mortal life in which your Son Jesus Christ came to visit us in great humility; that in the last day, when he shall come again in his glorious majesty to judge both the living and the dead, we may rise to the life immortal; through him who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

Please be seated.

THE SERMON Thomas Diaz

THE FIRST READING: Isaiah 64:1-9 Jill Draffin

Reader A Reading from the book of the prophet Isaiah.

[1]O that you would tear open the heavens and come down, so that the mountains would quake at your presence—
[2]as when fire kindles brushwood and the fire causes water to boil—
to make your name known to your adversaries,
so that the nations might tremble at your presence!
[3]When you did awesome deeds that we did not expect,
you came down, the mountains quaked at your presence.
[4]From ages past no one has heard,
no ear has perceived,
no eye has seen any God besides you,
who works for those who wait for him.
[5]You meet those who gladly do right,
those who remember you in your ways.
But you were angry, and we sinned;
because you hid yourself we transgressed.
[6]We have all become like one who is unclean,
and all our righteous deeds are like a filthy cloth.
We all fade like a leaf,
and our iniquities, like the wind, take us away.
[7]There is no one who calls on your name,
or attempts to take hold of you;
for you have hidden your face from us,
and have delivered us into the hand of our iniquity.
[8]Yet, O LORD, you are our Father;

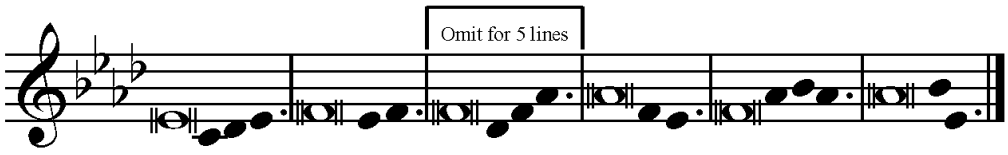

we are the clay, and you are our potter;
we are all the work of your hand.
9 Do not be exceedingly angry, O LORD,
and do not remember iniquity forever.
Now consider, we are all your people.

Reader The Word of the Lord.
People Thanks be to God.

Please stand as able and join in singing.

THE PSALM: Psalm 80:1-7, 16-18

Mode 8

© Saint Meinrad Archabbey

2 O shepherd of Israel hear us,
you who lead Joseph like a flock:
enthroned on the cherubim,
shine forth upon Ephraim,
Benjamin, and Manasseh.
Rouse up your might and come to save us.

4 O God, bring us back;
let your face shine on us, and we shall be saved.
5 How long O LORD, God of hosts, will you be angry at the prayer of your people?
6 You have fed them with tears for their bread,
an abundance of tears for their drink.

7 You have made us the taunt of our neighbors;
our foes mock us among themselves.
Visit this vine and protect it,
16 the vine your right hand has planted,
the son of man you have claimed for yourself.
17 They have burnt it with fire and cut it down.

May they perish at the frown of your face.
18 May your hand be on the one at your right hand,
the son of man you have confirmed as your own.
19 And we shall never forsake you again;
give us all life
that we may call upon your name.

Please be seated.

THE SECOND READING: 1 Corinthians 1:3-9 Michele Dulson

Reader A Reading from Paul's First letter to the Church in Corinth.

3 Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.
4 I give thanks to my God always for you because of the grace of God that has been given you in Christ Jesus, 5 for in every way you have been enriched in him, in speech and knowledge of every kind— 6 just as the testimony of Christ has been strengthened among you— 7 so that you are not lacking in any spiritual gift as you wait for the revealing of our Lord Jesus Christ. 8 He will also strengthen you to the end, so that you may be blameless on the day of our Lord Jesus Christ. 9 God is faithful; by him you were called into the fellowship of his Son, Jesus Christ our Lord.

Reader The Word of the Lord.
People Thanks be to God.

Please stand as able.

THE SEQUENCE

Hymnal 56 Veni, Veni Emmanuel
Soloist will sing the fifth verse of the Sequence followed by all singing the refrain.

Soloist O come, thou Dayspring from on high,
and cheer us by thy drawing nigh;
disperse the gloomy clouds of night,
and death's dark shadow put to flight.

THE GOSPEL: Mark 13:24-37

Celebrant ✚ The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Mark.
People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Jesus said, 24 "In those days, after that suffering,
the sun will be darkened,
and the moon will not give its light,
25 and the stars will be falling from heaven,
and the powers in the heavens will be shaken.

[26]Then they will see 'the Son of Man coming in clouds' with great power and glory.
[27]Then he will send out the angels, and gather his elect from the four winds, from the ends of the earth to the ends of heaven.

[28]"From the fig tree learn its lesson: as soon as its branch becomes tender and puts forth its leaves, you know that summer is near. [29]So also, when you see these things taking place, you know that he is near, at the very gates. [30]Truly I tell you, this generation will not pass away until all these things have taken place. [31]Heaven and earth will pass away, but my words will not pass away.

[32]"But about that day or hour no one knows, neither the angels in heaven, nor the Son, but only the Father. [33]Beware, keep alert; for you do not know when the time will come. [34]It is like a man going on a journey, when he leaves home and puts his slaves in charge, each with his work, and commands the doorkeeper to be on the watch.
[35]Therefore, keep awake—for you do not know when the master of the house will come, in the evening, or at midnight, or at cockcrow, or at dawn, [36]or else he may find you asleep when he comes suddenly. [37]And what I say to you I say to all: Keep awake."

Celebrant The Gospel of the Lord.
People Praise to you, Lord Christ.

THE CREED

Celebrant We believe

All in one God, the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father, God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, of one Being with the Father. Through him all things were made. For us and for our salvation he came down from heaven: by the power of the Holy Spirit he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary, and was made man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate; he suffered death and was buried. On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures; he ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son. With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified. He has spoken through the Prophets. We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church. We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins. We look for the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Please kneel as able or be seated.

THE INTERCESSIONS

Mary Bailey

Intercessor God of promise, as we begin this holy season of Advent, awaken your Church to the mystery of your presence. Renew our faith, deepen our longing for you, and make us a people through whom others may discover your love.

Come, Lord Jesus:

All And renew the face of the earth.

Intercessor Look upon a world weary of violence, division, and fear. Give wisdom to those who govern, courage to those who seek peace, and compassion to those entrusted with the lives of others. Teach the nations to turn their instruments of destruction into instruments of life.

Come, Lord Jesus:

All And renew the face of the earth.

Intercessor As we give thanks for the blessings of our lives, make us mindful of those who have little for which to give thanks. Remember those without shelter, those who hunger, those who live in poverty, and those who face an uncertain future. May our generosity become a sign of your coming kingdom.

Come, Lord Jesus:

All And renew the face of the earth.

Intercessor Bless our parish, our homes, and our families. Where there is estrangement, open a way towards reconciliation; where there is loneliness, provide companionship; and where hope has grown dim, kindle again the light of expectation.

Come, Lord Jesus:

All And renew the face of the earth.

Intercessor Draw near to those who wait for healing, for relief from suffering, for good news, or for the return of someone they love. Sustain those whose waiting has become a burden. We pray especially for those we name aloud or in the silence of our hearts.

Pause

Come, Lord Jesus:

All And renew the face of the earth.

Intercessor Remember all who have died, and all for whom this approaching season brings memories of those they love. Grant the departed the fullness of your presence, and comfort those who await the day when all things shall be made new. We pray especially for those we name aloud or in the silence of our hearts.

Pause

Come, Lord Jesus:

All And renew the face of the earth.

Intercessor For what else shall we pray?

The congregation is invited to offer intentions aloud or in silence.

Celebrant Let us pray together.

All God of our beginning and our end, receive the prayers of your waiting people, and make us ready, not only for the day of your coming, but for every moment in which you come to us; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

THE CONFESSION & ABSOLUTION

Celebrant As we prepare to welcome Christ, let us confess all that prevents us from recognizing him in our midst.

Silence.

All Merciful God, we confess that we have not always lived as people of hope. We have allowed fear to govern our choices, familiarity to dull our wonder, and indifference to close our hearts. We have longed for your coming, yet overlooked your presence in one another. Forgive us, awaken us, and renew within us the desire for your kingdom; that we may walk in your light, and welcome you with joy; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Celebrant Almighty God have mercy on you, ✚ forgive you all your sins through our Lord Jesus Christ, strengthen you in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep you in eternal life. Amen.

Please stand as able.

THE PEACE

Celebrant The peace of the Lord be always with you.
People And also with you.

The Ministers and People exchange signs of peace in the name of the Lord.

THE OFFERTORY SENTENCE

Celebrant Let us offer our gifts and our lives to God, that the kingdom for which we wait may begin to take shape in the world through us.

Please be seated.

THE OFFERTORY

The Eucharistic Prayer for Advent

Celebrant The Lord be with you.
People And also with you.
Celebrant Lift up your hearts.
People We lift them to the Lord.
Celebrant Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
People It is right to give God thanks and praise.

It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth.

For in the fullness of time your eternal Word came to dwell among us, clothing our humanity with your divinity, and revealing the nearness of your kingdom. Even now, you come to us in mystery, awakening our hearts to your presence, and renewing within us the hope of that glorious day when all creation shall find its fulfilment in you.

Therefore we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who for ever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:

THE SANCTUS

Hymnal S-116 Holy, holy, holy, Lord God of Hosts Missa de Angelis

Glory and thanksgiving be to you, most loving Father, for from the beginning of creation you have called all things into being, and drawn them towards their fulfilment in you.

When we turned from your light, you did not abandon us to darkness. Through the prophets you awakened our hope, through your promises you sustained our longing, and in the fullness of time, through the Virgin Mary, your eternal Word took flesh and dwelt among us.

In Jesus Christ, you entered the very world that waited for you. He shared our weakness, bore our sorrows, proclaimed your kingdom, and revealed the depth of your love. By his death he overcame death, and by his resurrection opened to us the promise of life everlasting.

On the night in which he was betrayed, he took bread, and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, saying:

Take, eat. This is my Body, which is broken for you.

After supper he took the cup of wine, and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, saying:

Drink this, all of you. This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Do this, whenever you drink it, in remembrance of me.

We now obey your Son's command:

All We recall his blessed passion and death,
we celebrate his glorious resurrection and ascension,
and we look for the coming of his kingdom.

Father, in remembrance of your Son, we offer you this bread and this cup, the gifts of your creation, and with them ourselves, our souls and bodies, in thanksgiving for your redeeming love.

Send down your Holy Spirit upon us, and upon these gifts, that this bread and this wine may be for us the Body and Blood of your beloved Son, Jesus Christ.

As we receive him who came among us in humility, and who shall come again in glory, awaken us to his presence here and now. Make us one in him, and one with all who await the fulfilment of your promises.

Remember your Church throughout the world, all who seek you, and all who have yet to discover your love. Remember those who have gone before us in faith, and gather us, with St. Michael and All Angels, and all your saints, into the joy of your everlasting kingdom.

Through Jesus Christ our Lord, by whom, and with whom, and in whom, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, all honor and glory are yours, Almighty Father, world without end.

All AMEN.

THE LORD'S PRAYER

Celebrant And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,
Our Father,

All who art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever and ever. Amen.

THE FRACTION

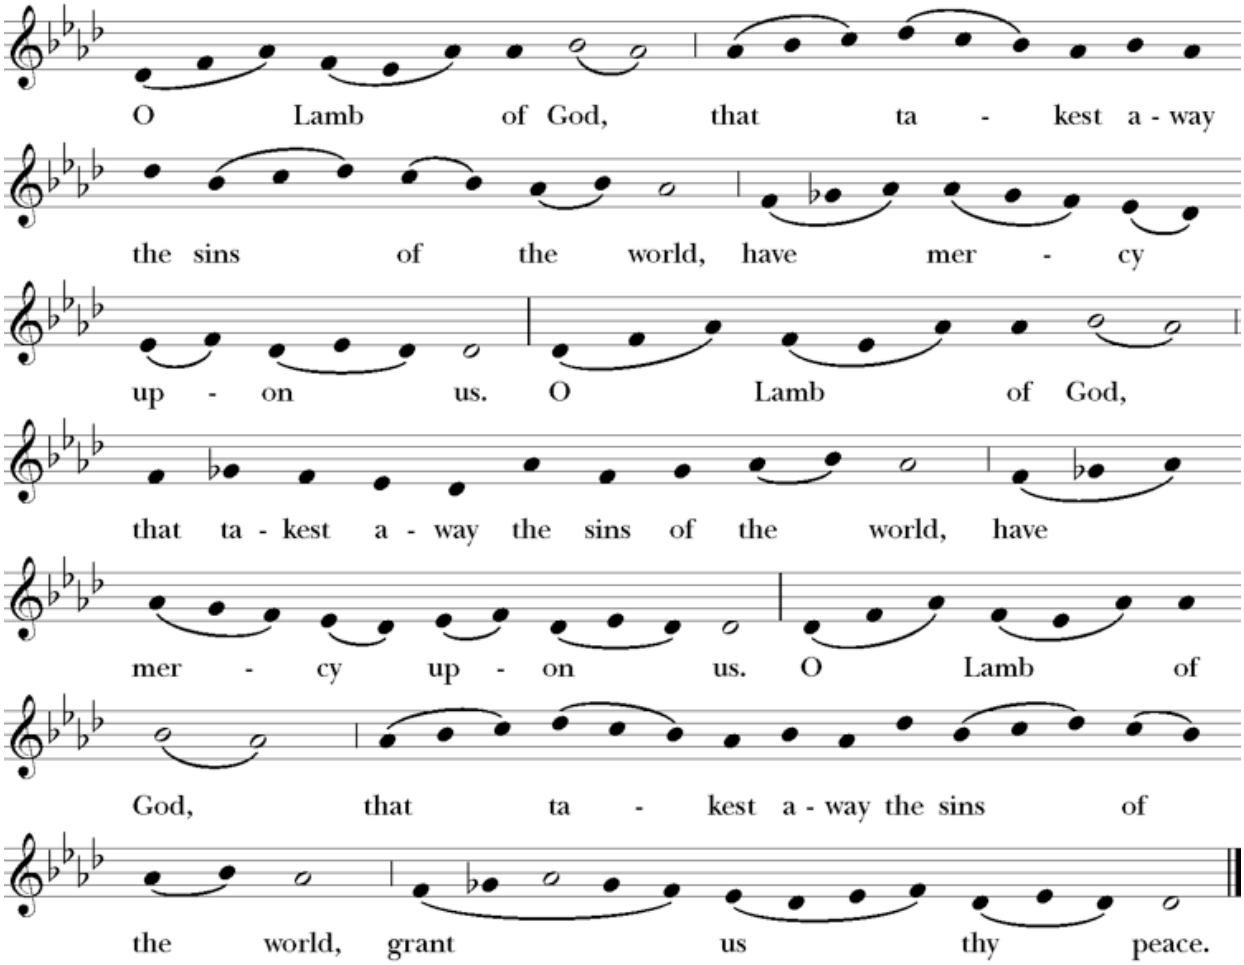

Celebrant We break this bread to share in the Body of Christ.

People Though we are many, we are One Body, because we all share in one bread.

Celebrant The Gifts of God for the People of God.

THE AGNUS DEI

Hymnal S-159 Charles Winfred Douglas

Everyone is welcome to receive Christ's Body and Blood in our Church. If you do not wish to receive either the bread or the wine, please cross your arms and a short blessing will be said. You are also welcome to intinct the bread into the chalice if you prefer not to drink directly from the chalice. (Though, to be honest, it is fortified with extra alcohol to kill germs. If you don't drink it the priest must, and then the announcements can get a bit entertaining after Mass.)

Gluten-free wafers are also available upon request.

Congregants worshiping on YouTube or Zoom may say the following:

THE SPIRITUAL COMMUNION PRAYER

Jesus, I believe that you are truly present in the Blessed Sacrament of the Altar. I love you above all things, and long for you in my soul. Since I cannot receive you in the Sacrament of your Body and Blood, come spiritually into my heart. Cleanse and strengthen me with your grace, Lord Jesus, and let me never be separated from you. May I live in you, and you in me, in this life and in the life to come. Amen.

THE COMMUNION MUSIC

There is no rose (Graham J. Ellis)

Please kneel or sit as able.

THE POST-COMMUNION PRAYER

Celebrant Let us pray.

God of promise,

All we thank you that, even as we await the coming of your Son, you have given us his presence in this holy Sacrament. May the mystery we have received awaken us to the mystery of your presence in the world. Strengthen us to live with hope, to serve with love, and to wait with joyful expectation, until faith gives way to sight, and all creation is made new in Christ; who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, world without end. Amen.

Please be seated.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

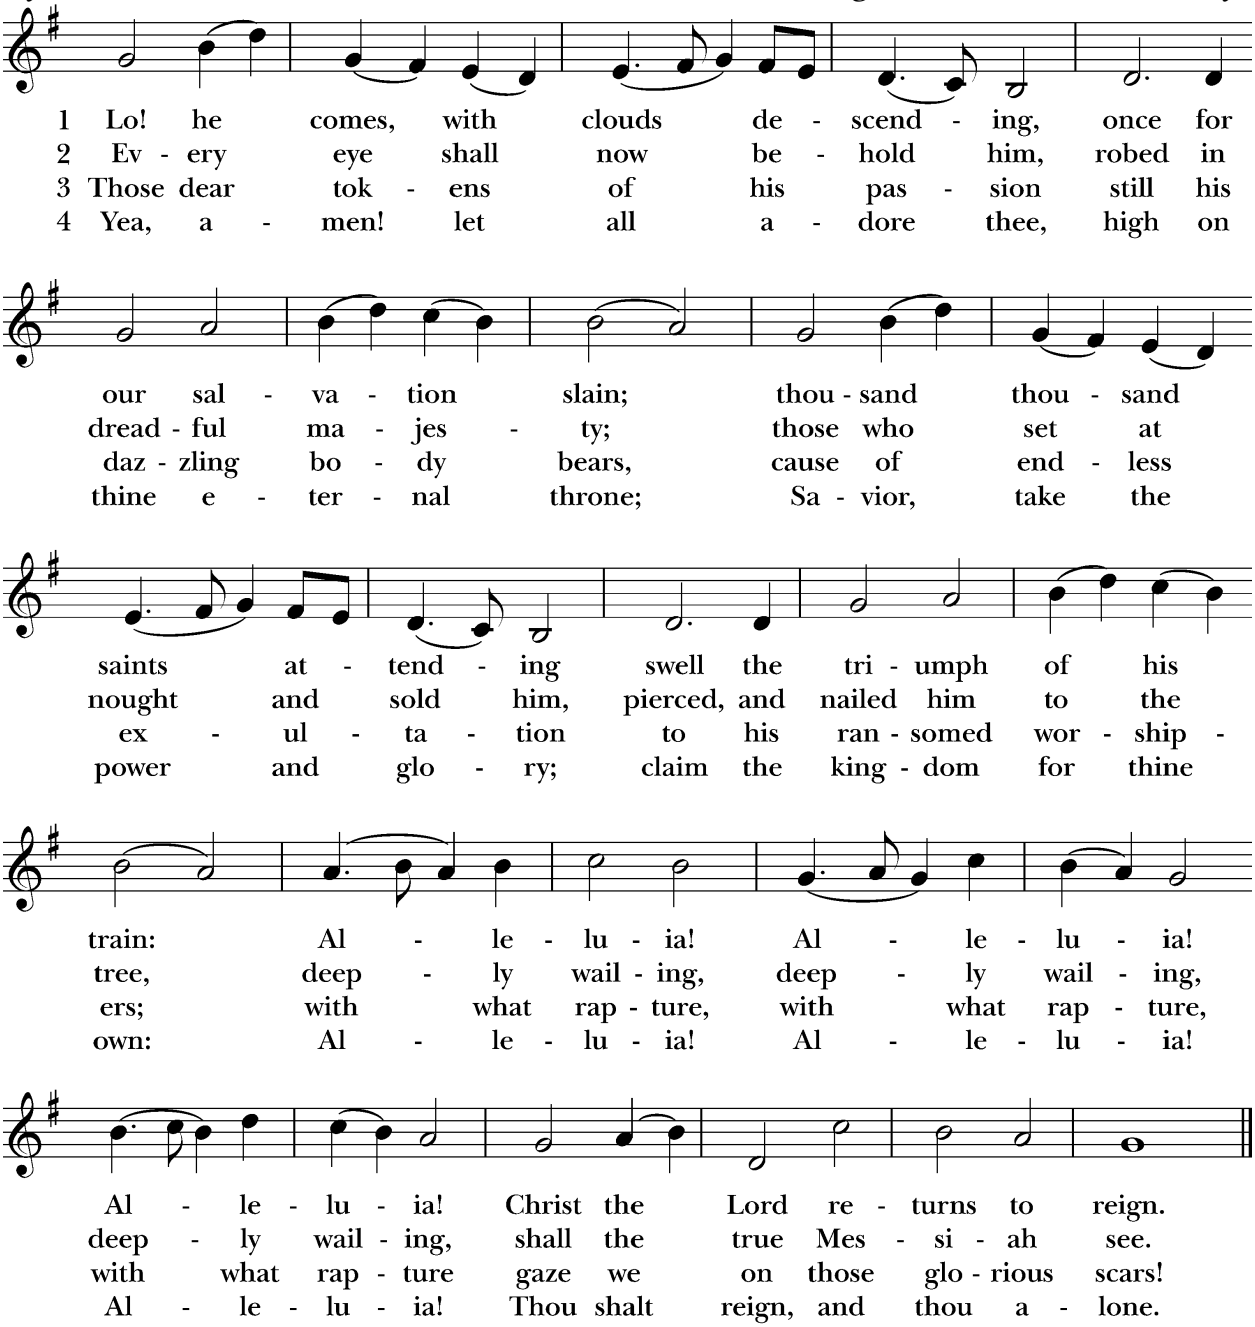

Please stand as able.

THE BENEDICTION

May Christ, who came among us in humility, teach you to recognize him in the ordinary. May Christ, who comes among us in mystery, awaken you to the holiness of the present moment. May Christ, who shall come again in glory, free you from fear, and fill you with joyful expectation. And the blessing of God Almighty, ✚ the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit, be amongst you, and remain with you always. Amen.

THE RECESSIONAL

Living Generously | Mark 13:24-37

Advent begins, and just when we're ready for candles and carols, Mark gives us an apocalyptic vision and a command to keep awake. But Jesus isn't inviting us to become anxious spectators scanning the horizon for disaster. He is teaching us to remain attentive to God's presence in a world where familiar structures may fail. Alongside the cosmic upheaval, the fig tree offers a quieter image: tender branches signaling change before the fullness of the season arrives. Watchfulness is simply the spiritual discipline of noticing possibility. This season reminds us that we do not control the future, nor do we need to predict it. Instead, we give, serve, welcome, and build because we trust that God is already at work. Generosity is an act of hope—a declaration that the future holds more than our present fears can imagine. Keeping awake means refusing to let anxiety blind us to the new life God is bringing into being.

Adopt-a-Family: Help Bring Holiday Cheer

Each year, St. Michael's partners with MOMs Orange County to bring joy to families through its annual Adopt-a-Family program. This holiday season, we're collecting gift cards for a family of seven: a single mother and her six children, including newborn twin girls. The family is facing significant financial and housing challenges, and your generosity can help provide food, clothing, and other essentials while bringing a little extra joy to their holidays.

Gift card suggestions:

- Mom: Costco, Walmart
- Son (17): Hot Topic, Hollister, Old Navy
- Daughter (7): Old Navy, Ross, Cotton On
- Daughter (5): Walmart, Ross
- Son (3): Walmart, Ross
- Twin daughters (2 months): Walmart, Burlington

Every gift card, in any amount, makes a difference. Thank you for helping us share the love and generosity of our parish community this Christmas!
